Llanbadarn and Talbot Tigers both start in style

The Jockey B side are a strong outfit so last weeks 11-3 win for Llanbadarn is extremely impressive. The return of the South Powys side is very welcome to our league who had Justin Bishop 3/3 in fine form including the match winning frame. The Jockey B had no answer and lost the last seven frames on the bounce. Playing from the Monty Club, Llanbadarn take on The Sws this week who narrowly lost to the reigning champions Full Montys.

Mike Williams continues to put in performances and it was his last frame win over Josh Allen which proved the difference for a narrow 8-6 away win. Graham Ottaway with a 2/2 against Drew including a 7 baller tried his best to rally the troops. The Full Montys have one of many derby matches this week against the Nomads.

The Monty Teasers finished fourth last season and have recruited Steve Bebb who will definitely add some strength. The first weeks honours belonged to Scott Clifford's Tigers who had Shaun James 3/3 and Mark Crees 2/3 introduced to the side. Dave Woosnam 2/2 sealed the match points in the tenth frame against Russ Evans.

The battle of the promoted sides Cefn Coch A and The Herbs ended in a one sided 10-4 win for the Kerry side. Jon Edwards making his return to our league with a 2/2 as Chris Chaney with a 2/3 made sure his side took two points after beating Rich Bennett in the last frame of the second session. The Herbs will now relish this weeks match at home to the Jockey B, as Cefn Coch take on the Monty Misfits who laboured to a 7-7 draw away to the Lion Cubs.

In a match littered with errors from both teams, it seemed the most likely result with both sides not doing enough to take both points. An impromptu kick on the black for the seventh frame against Nigel Owen resulted in the cubs Mr consistent taking out a superb clearance. John Roberts was Cubs hero, winning the last frame to share the spoils. Conor Jones with a 3/3 and continued his good form for the Misfits.

There was Four 7 ballers in the match between the Nomads who have lost Owen Durbridge, and the Jockey A. The match started well enough for the Nomads, winning the first three frames before the Jockey jolted in to life, wining nine of the remaining eleven. With the Jockey travelling without Carl Clark and Aled Lloyd, new signing Lee Willis managed to avenge his first session defeat by Josh Owen to beat him for the match frame in the thirteenth. 7 ballers for Alan Walker Tomos Lloyd, Steve Davies and Matt Davies.

Already we can see how strong the Premiership is this season with every side stacked with more than capable players. This really does promise to be the closest season for many a year.

Jesters give the Zimmers a tough lesson in Div. Two

Newly promoted Jockey Jesters dished out an 11-3 defeat to the newly formed Zimmers last week and if they didn't know before, they will know now that even with all of the years experience they have, this season wont be an easy one for them. Terry Marshall won the first frame before Martin Williams with a 2/3 and the match frame against Kev Mitchell who is one of four players making a comeback along with Vinny Reynolds, Alan Davies and Mitch Harris. Terry turns 76 years young next Tues so no doubt he'll be in good voice this Sunday. The Zimmers may fancy the smaller table to play on this week in the Sportsman. If you're walking down Severn St on Sunday, expect to see the Zimmers transport parked outside the pub.

A close match between the Desert Rats and the Monty Queues who are both expected to battle for promotion, resulted in the Queues winning 8-6 away. Neal Pratten with a 3/3 being the pick of the team and included the winning frame in the penultimate frame after Gareth Bowen also recorded a 3/3 for the home side. The Rats have their bye this week as the Queues face another tough match against the Red Lion.

The Bowling Ballers had to come back from 7-5 down away to the Red Lion who had rich Wyatt, John Bunn and Mike Lewis in good form. Gareth McMurdo 2/3 and finally Chris Knowles 3/3 restored parity. The Ballers take on the BullnHeifer this week at home after the Bulls narrowly lost 8-8 to Cefn Coch B. Rob Davies with a 3/3, a 7 baller and the match found the table to his liking, and no doubt would have slept well. Kev Gittens was to pick of the home side with a 3/3 but to no avail. Cefn Coch now have a home match to the Jones and Co to look forward to which will be an early test of their credentials.

Jones and Co who were promoted last season weren't overwhelmed in the higher league and would have run out winners if it wasn't for Alec Scarborough for the Severn St Mob (SSM) winning the last frame against Tom Andrew. Rhys Jones 2/2 was the pick of the home side before Casey Pritchard, Linda Andrew and Laura Jones put them 7-6 up after being 6-4 down. This week the Outcasts from the Bowling Club ( formerly Queens A) begin their season with an away match to the Jockey Jesters.

Big wins for Melts, Judges and Dolau B in Div Three

Newly formed Mos Misfits didn't have a great start in the league, losing 11-3 to the Courthouse Judges away. Amy Jones and Sam Young both 3/3 lead the way with the match effectively over in the eleventh frame when Sam beat Josh Jones. No reprieve for the Misfits this week as they take on the other side who won 11-3 last week, Dolau B.

Jammy's Dolau B have strengthened well over the Summer and started the season off in good form, beating the Outbowlers 11-3 at home. Steve Tudor with a 3/3 and the match frame against Jordan Lewis in the tenth, was one of three to record a 100% win rate alongside Mark Powell and Lydon Birch. The Outbowlers face a tough home tie against the Monty Melts this week who themselves had a convincing win last week.

The Melts captain Alex Galvin will have been pleased with his sides tough match against the Buck Yourself which ended with a 10-4 win. Alex with a 2/2 and Michael Goodwin 3/3 were the main attributors for the Melts, with the Bucks relying on Liam Farrington 3/3 to lead their side. The Buck will want to get some points on the board this week when they entertain the Bowlers. The Bowlers lead by Joshua Ross 2/3 and a 7 baller, beat the Dolau A with a narrow 8-6 win. Michael Ross with a 3/3 excelled on the night before the Dolau won the last three frames to make the scoreline respectable.

Jason Jones's Back Lane Bowlers started the season off with a superb 9-5 away win against the Woodenspooners. Coming back from 4-2, they then won seven of the last eight frames, with Kye Brooks and Sam Woosnam both 3/3 being their sides best performers.

The Lion Caerhowel just about held out at home to the Jury, eventually winning 8-6. Ben Heeraman with a 2/3 settled his sides nerves in the twelfth frame against Rich Watson who also recorded a 2/3. Duan Redman 2/3 for the Lions had previously put them on the hill before Ben settled the contest. Iwan Griffiths 2/3 for the Jury can be pleased with his nights performance against one of this seasons title favourites.
