Misfits bounce back to stun Jockey B

Visiting a strong Jockey B team the Misfits found themselves 5-1 down but a resilient reply in the second and third sessions winning 4-1 and 3-1 resulted in a superb 8-6 away win. Neil Powell was in outstanding form with a 3/3 with Lee Harris beating Simon Griffiths in the last frame to make the journey home a sweet one. That moves them second in the table after the Full Montys match against Llanbadarn was called off. The Jockey A went top after they demolished the Lion Cubs 11-3 away. The Jockeys galloped in to a 7-0 lead before the Cubs could reply but the match was effectively over in the tenth when Carl Clark 2/3 beat Llyr Thomas. Aled Lloyd and Steve Davies both 3/3 were the form players for the Jockey who have started the season off brightly. Promoted side The Herbs had an outstanding 8-6 win against a Sws side who are a solid Premiership outfit. Adam Jones 3/3 for The Sws but that was copied by Ashley Isaac for the Herbs, with Roger Lovatt winning the last frame against Stafford Jones who had an off night by his standards. Carl Pryce 2/3 has enjoyed a good start to his new home venue. Well done to the Herbs who have started their first Premiership campaign off with two wins from three matches. As forecast in the first Press, Cefn Coch won't be anybody's pushovers this season and pushed a strong Monty Teasers side who finished fourth last year, finally succumbing 9-5. New signing Steve Bebb continues to impress with a 3/3 and the match frame for the Teasers which included the match frame to cap a perfect night for him. Jamie Huxley also with a 3/3 for the home side who stay rooted at the bottom with a giant task of playing the Jockey this week. The Nomads gained their first point of the season with a draw against the Talbot last week. Alan Walker 2/3 has started brightly to the strengthened side, but the Tigers have also improved their squad with the signing of Mark Crees 3/3 and need captain Scott to win the last frame against Dan Stephens to share the spoils. The Tigers visit the Full Montys this week and will have to be clinical if they are to have any joy.

ZIMMERS ARE ON A ROLL IN DIV. TWO

Back to back wins for the Zimmers in the league after last weeks beating of Cefn Coch B 10-4. Canterng to an 8-0 lead is highly unusual in a competitive division, with Owen wrapping up the win against Clive Langford. That moves them up to second in the league after bouncing back from their first week loss. Plenty of experience and life in the old dogs yet. A bigger challenge lies in wait this week against the Bowling Ballers. League leaders Jockey jesters were held to a draw by the Desert Rats after Callum Lovell beat Martin Williams 2/3 in the last frame. Harry Pritchard and Wayne Olden both 2/3 put the Jesters on the brink of a win but had to settle for their first dropped point of the season and can only sit and watch this weekend as they have their bye. The Bowling Ballers held their nerve against the Jones and Co who have youngsters finding their feet in the division, finally winning 8-6. It took a 3/3 from Rhys Bell to make the difference with Luke Williams also finding form with a 3/3. Young Rhys Jones for the home side had a very respectable 2/3 which was out shone by his dad Alan with a 3/3. They now visit the Red Lion who lost their derby match 8-6 to the BullnHeifer last week. The Lions rallied after losing the first four frames but to no avail after Kev Gittins beat Mike Lewis in the penultimate frame. Earlier Adam Evans and John Bunn both 2/3 had given the Lion some hope. The Bulls face a trip to the Monty Queues this week who had their bye last week. Still awaiting their first point of the season are the Outcasts who narrowly lost to the Severn St Mob 8-6. New signing Ted Pryce proved his worth with a 3/3 and was the main difference on the night, with Alec Scarborough giving the killer blow in the last frame against captain Phil Fage. Phil takes his team up the hill to Cefn Coch this week and will want a drastic change in fortunes sooner rather than later.

FOUR TEAMS JOINT TOP IN DIV. THREE

Even in these early days of a season, you can tell that this is going to be a close run thing for the title. Two of the four sides tied are the Dolau B and the Judges who meet this week. The Dolau B hammered the Back Lane Bowlers 11-3 last week with mark Powell probably celebrating his 60th birthday a little early as he lost 2/2 for them. Charlie Martin who sat out the first session won 2/2 and the match frame against Sam Woosnam. This week doesn't get any easier for the Bowlers as they face the Melts who are also on a 100% points total. Playing at home, the Monty Melts took on and beat new side Mo's Misfits 10-4. Even though the Misfits had Reino DeClerk with a 3/3, they had no response to a relentless Melts who won all three sessions, 3-2, 4-1 and 3-1. The Misfits play fellow strugglers the Outbowlers this week so someone will take their first point or points of the season.

The Outbowlers lost at home to the Buck 9-5 last week, with Liam Farrington being the top Buck with a 3/3 closely followed by Gareth Edmunds and Huw Wainwright, both 2/3. that win keeps the Buck in contention as they take on the Lions of Caerhowel this week which will be a good test of their credentials this early in the season. Jordan Lewis 2/3 for the Outbowlers can be pleased with his performance last week.

The Derby match at the Courthouse proved enjoyable for the Judges as they beat the Jury 9-5. A strange game of two halves as the Judges raced to an 8-0 lead before the jury rallied to make the scoreline respectable. Top marks for Amy Jones and Johnny Jones both 2/2 for the Judges who take on the Dolau A this week. The Jury face inform Dolau B.

The Lion Caerhowel had Arnold Tanner 2/3 making his debut against the Midnight Bowlers and with Jack Shepherd 3/3, that proved the difference as they ran out 9-5 winners. With the match evenly poised at 5-5, the Bowlers were looking at taking an excellent point however they were denied by Arnie in the thirteenth frame against Callum Hamilton. The Dolau A are still searching for their first point after they lost to the Woodenspooners 9-5. Ricky Penny with a 3/3 and a 2/2 for Jamie Woodhouse were the main difference as the Spooners start the season off brightly. With Aron James 2/2 also in their side and seemingly happy to play below his premiership level, they could consolidate their top half position with a win against the Midnight Bowlers this week.
