Big Wins for Llanbadarn, Jockey A and Full Montys

All three sides who are expected to fight it out for the Premiership title turned on the style last week. Llanbadarn were in action away to promoted side The Herbs and wasted no time in taking the first nine frames before Jon Edwards got on the score sheet for the Kerry side. It was a brutal lesson but the Herbs possess more than enough to put up a fight for the divisions survival. Graham Hicks with a 3/3 and the match winning frame for Llanbadarn host the Misfits who finished third last season.

The Misfits laboured to an 8-6 narrow win against an unfortunate Sws side who haven't had the best run of fixtures to start the season off. Coming back from 2-0 down, the Sws took the next four frames before parity was restored. Aled Evans 3-3 then put the Misfits in pole position, leaving Neil Powell to clinch the match frame against graham Ottaway. The Sws are a stronger outfit than their league position portrays and will no doubt climb up the table over the next few weeks.

Mark Crees returned to the Monty Club with his new team mates from the Talbot and got off to the best possible start, beating his old captain Jake Ottaway but the Tigers found the hosts to be a in relentless mood, as they won eight of the next ten frames, culminating in Daf Rowlands 3/3 beating Dave Woosnam for the match which finished 11-3. 3/3 also for the Montys Carl Guntrip who continues to get a good turn out for the Tuesday Flyers. The Jockey A who lost their crown last year seem to be in good form as they demolished new boys Cefn Coch A 12-2. It will have been a harsh lesson for Cefn Coch but they don't come much tougher than this. It was 4-0 before Luke Mumford took a frame back, beating Steve Davies, but that only seemed to spur on the Jockey as they won the next five. It was Steve himself who bounced back from that defeat to win the match frame after nine frames. Captain Dave Manuel had the luxury of playing himself in the last session with the match effectively over, and will of enjoyed his win.

Cefn Coch play the Nomads this week after they lost the last frame of the match to the Lion Cubs and a narrow 8-6 defeat. Josh Owen with a 3/3 but to no avail as Nigel Owen beat new signing Rob Griffiths for a hard fought two points and lifts them to fourth. Mark Woosnam with a 3/3 for the Cubs, continues his good start to the season. Honours even between the Teasers and Jockey B who had Callum Bishop 3/3 in top form. Late to arrive, Ed Lewis, missed the first session but made amends with a 2/2 putting his side on the hill before birthday boy Simon Griffiths beat Steve Bebb in the last frame to keep both side mid table at this early stage of the season.

BALLERS ROLL TO THE TOP OF DIV. TWO

The Bowling Ballers climbed to the top of the league with a convincing 12-2 win over the Zimmers last week. Only Kev Mitchell and Vinny Reynolds had any resistance in the Bowling Club, with the Ballers putting in a clinical display. Luke Williams 3/3 and a 7 baller and Chris Knowles and Rhys Bell both 2/2 including the match frame were their star performers. The Ballers will relish this weeks match against bottom side Outcasts who are struggling to get to grips with the new season.

Last week, the outcasts visited Cefn Coch and came away with a 9-5 defeat. A run of seven from on the bounce put Cefn Coch in a healthy 7-1 lead, leaving it to Clive Langford to beat under pressure captain Phil Fage for the match which leaves the Outcasts on zero points after four matches. That win puts Cefn Coch in joint first as one of three teams on six points.

The Monty Queues had a fairly routine nights, beating the BullnHeifer 10-4. Neal Pratten and Nick Lewis both 3/3 were the stars of the show for the Queues, with only Alex Miles 3/3 having any joy for the Bulls. That sets up an eagerly anticipated contest this week between the Queues and the Jesters who had their bye last week.

The Severn St Mob are ticking along nicely at this early stage and last week beat the Rats 10-4 at home. With the Rats leading 4-3, they totally capitulated losing all of the second seven frames. Tudor Lloyd Kerry with a 3/3 and Clive Jarman 2/2 keeps the Sportsman side to within just one point of the leaders.

The Jones and Co recorded their first win of the season thanks in part to a 3/3 for Casey Pritchard. In a tight match and the scores never more than two frames apart, it needed a last frame win for Jamie Jones against Adam Evans to make sure his side came back down the hill smiling with their first win. Landlord Rich Wyatt 3/3 also had a good night on his home table.

This week with the Zimmers taking on the Red Lion, it appears that this match could well see one of the highest accumulated age on show that our league has ever seen.

ALL SIX AWAY TEAMS WIN AND A FOUR WAY TIE AT THE TOP OF DIV. THREE

A highly unusual set of results last week in division three saw all six away teams travelling home with two points.

The Dolau B remain top on frame difference after beating the Jury 11-3. They raced in to a six frame lead before the Jury registered anything on the scoreline. Lydon Birch with a 3/3 was the Dolau top performer as they will look forward to this weeks derby match against their “A” side. The Jury are unfortunately still to register a point this season.

No respite for the Dolau A as their suffered a whitewash against the Judges 14-0. Brett Clark with a 3/3 and sealing an early finish in the eight frame which will have done the world of good to the frame aggregate at the top of the league.

The Judges take on another side struggling so far, the Midnight Bowlers and will again look for a hefty win.

The Lion Caerhowel came through a difficult match against Buck Yourself with a 9-5 win, with Ben Heeraman settling his sides nerves in the twelfth as he beat David Meredith. Duan Redman with a 3/3 was the top Lion performer as they sit joint top of the table and look to win back promotion at the first attempt.

A narrow 8-6 for the Melts playing away to the Back Lane Bowlers. From 3-1 down, the Melts fought back to 4-3 up, after which frames were shared until Michael Goodwin 2/3 beat Rhyd Jones in the last frame. The Melts take on bottom side Courthouse Jury and will look for a more comfortable nights work but will be minded of under estimating their opponents.

The Woodenspooners are clinging on to the top pack after beating the Midnight Bowlers 9-5. Strangely after winning the first nine frames, they seemed to stop playing and lost the remaining five which they may find frustrating if frame difference plays a part later in the season. James Bevan only played one frame but it was the key frame and match winner against Anthony Price.

Still no points for Mo`s Misfits after they lost to The Outbowlers 9-5. Oliver Hall with a 2/2 and a 2/3 for Jordan Lewis gave the Outbowlers their first two points of the season as they face a derby match this week against the Back Lane Bowlers.
