Full Montys Power to the Top as the Jockey B win Derby Match

A superb 8-6 win for the Jockey B against their table sharing A side meant that the Full Montys went top for the first time this season after they beat The Herbs 10-4. Phil Richards, Simon Griffiths and Jake Owen lead the battle and after leading 3-1 and 5-3, the B side took complete control after Jake beat Matt Davies twice. Before Lee Willis 3/3 and Carl Clark 2/3 made the scoreline more respectable.

That win will have been well received at the Monty Club as the Full Montys cantered to a 104 win over The Herbs. Four 7 ballers for them which included two for Drew Hughes and Glyn Davies 3/3 who took the match winning frame against Chris Chaney in the tenth. 2/2 for both Ashely Isaac and Dave Ashton for the home side was a very respectable nights return at this level.

Llanbadarn held their nerve to close out a narrow 8-6 win against the Misfits. Racing in to a 7-3 lead which included two 7 ballers (Justin Bishop & Paul Robinson), left the Misfits a mountain to climb. Back they come with a 2/3 for Neil Powell and Lee Harris but Dave Morgan 3/3 put a stop to the comeback after he beat Jason Stokes. That win lifts Llanbadarn to fourth with a rearranged match against the Full Montys still to play. That loss was the Misfits first of the season after coming from behind on a few occasions.

The Sws climbed above the Teasers after beating them 9-5, thanks to another 2/2 for Mark Jones who has started the season off brightly. After dropping himself from the second session, Graham Ottaway beat Nigel Roberts in the last session to make sure of the two points after narrowly losing last week. That win was largely helped by a six frame running streak in the first eight frames against a side that finished fourth last season. Ed Lewis 3/3 continues his excellent start to the season. The Sws will look to take that form in to this weeks match against the Jockey A who will want to bounce back, whilst the Teasers have an equally hard match against Llanbadarn.

Mark Crees continues his good form for the Talbot Tigers after they poached him away from the Full Montys. A 3/3 for him as his side beat the Lion Cubs in the battle of the big cats, 9-5, with fellow new recruit Shaun James also chipping in with a 2/3. It's been an excellent start of the season for the Tigers who find themselves fifth in the league with a match against the bottom side Cefn Coch this week.

Cefn Coch A secured their first point of the season against fellow strugglers Nomads with a hard fought draw. Coming back from 5-2 down, Cefn Coch showed their mettle with Rich Bennet and Rich Williams being the main protagonists. Earlier Matt Rawsthorne 3/3 had put the Nomads on the hill at 7-6 before Richard Bennett beat Rob Griffiths in the last frame. Well done to Cefn Coch who have had a tough fixture list having played two of the top three sides so far. This week the Nomads take on the Jockey B which will no doubt make for a raucous Monty Suite.

When you look down the players list for each team, you can really start to see how strong the Premier league is this season.

Excellent wins for Promoted Teams, Jesters and Jones & Co in Div. Two

The Jockey Jesters have settled in to life in Division Two very fast and last week beat the Queues 12-2. winning all of the last nine frames with the scores at 3-2. That win puts the Jesters third in the league as they climbed above their opponents. 3/3 for young Ryan Hamer and the match frame against Liam Bishop.

The Jones and Co have back to back wins, this time beating the BullnHeifer 10-4. Young Rhys Jones 3/3 was the star of the show. They raced in to a 6-2 lead and won the last four frames for a largely one sided match against a well seasoned Bulls side. Tom Andrew with a 2/3 for the home side, with only Alex Miles 2/3 making any sort of impression for the Bulls.

The Bowling Ballers are living up to their title favourites tag at the start of the season and have now won three matches on the bounce. Last week, the Outcasts were the 9-5 victims with Luke Williams 3/3 showing how he won the Premiership player of the year title. Richard Morgan also chipped in with a 3/3 perfect score. As for the Outcasts, they remain rooted to the foot of the league without a point this season. A statistic they'll look to put right this week with a trip up the hill to the Red Lion.

Keeping up with the Ballers is Cefn Coch B who won away to the Desert rats 9-5. Robbie James was his sides hero, winning 3/3 including the match frame against Andy Meek in the penultimate frame. They sit second, only split by only six frames aggregate. Rob Francis also with a 3/3 for the villagers who have their bye this week.

In the battle of the "oldies", the Red Lion came away from the Zimmers with a 9-5 win after taking six frames in a row after Alan Davies won the first for the home side. Rory Sheen with a 2/2 and a John Bunn 3/3 did most of the work before the Zimmers pulled the last two frames back to make the scoreline respectable. The Zimmers take on fellow struggles BullnHeifer away this week.

The Severn St Mob had their bye last week and return this week with a top half of the table clash against the Jesters in this weeks stand out tie.

Big Win for Buck Yourself to close gap in Div. Three

A superb 12-2 win last week for the Buck saw them climb the table to fifth in the league. Huw Wainwright with a 3/3 continues to impress as he sits on a 75% win ratio. Jake Meredith also with a 3/3 sealed both points as early as the ninth frame when he beat Becky Page of Mo's Misfits who continue to wait for their first point of the season.

In the Dolau derby, the B side came out victors against their A side 9-5. that's five wins on the bounce for them as they continue to set the early pace. With the first six frames shared, the Dolau B must of held a good half time team talk as they won the next six frames, culminating in a Lydon Birch match winning frame against Archie Rees. This match saw Lydon lose his first league frame in the player of the year stats. Mark Powell, Steve Tudor and Charlie Martin all feature in the top stats of the league in an impressive start to the season. For the A side, they remain at the foot of the table without a point.

The Courthouse Judges are keeping up the pace with Dolau B as they struggled to overcome a resilient Midnight Bowlers 9-5. In another top versus bottom side, the Bowlers put up a fight that belied they lowly position until the last two frames when Sam Young 2/2 ended the nerves. Earlier Richard Clifton and Dave Roberts also chipped in with a 2/2 for the Judges ,with Stephen and Josh Ross both 2/3 for the Bowlers.

The lion Caerhowel can join the top two sides if they beat the Woodenspooners in a rear-ranged match.

A superb 9-5 win for the Courthouse Jury and high flying Monty Melts with Adam Bowen 3/3 being their star on the night. Richard Watson recovered from his first frame defeat to close the night with a 2/3 and the match frame against David Norbury in the thirteenth in what cost the Melts their 100% start. Back to back wins for Jon Jacobs in the tenth and eleventh was too little too late. That give the Jury their first point of the season, something the Dolau A can do this week when they also take on the Melts.

In the Bowling Club, the Outbowlers overcome their rivals Back Laners 8-6 with Oliver Hall 2/3 and a last frame win over Fluff Richards being their hero. Earlier Rob Bridgen suffered two 7 ballers against him, after his side went 4-0 up. Thomas Smith and Rich Davies both 2/3 for the Outbowlers as they climb to mid table as they travel to the Jury this week and can put more distance between them and the foot of the league.
