Monty Teasers beat Llanbadarn as Full Montys keep up momentum

Last week, the Monty Teasers hosted Llanbadarn and will have been delighted to have raced in to a 4-1 first session lead after Graham Hicks won the first frame for the visitors. Russ Evans who's been living the American dream over the last few weeks, returned to the line up but the match was effectively over in the tenth with Mark Davies beating Kris Robinson for an 8-2 lead. That win lifts the Teasers up to seventh and leaves Llanbadarn playing catch up albeit they do have a game in hand to arrange against the Full Montys. The Full Montys showed no sign of missing their Welsh duo of Drew Hughes and Mike Williams who were in Ireland on International duty. Congratulations to Drew's side who won the European Championships. A superb achievement. With them away, the Lion Cubs would have relished the chance to take on the league leaders but would have been shell shocked as they were hit for eleven frames on the bounce. It was an incredible display of the Full Montys strength and to do that against an experienced Premiership side. 3/3 for Glyn Davies who is yet to lose a frame this season, and a 2/2 for Carl Guntrip who has only lost one frame in what has been a superb start for the reigning champions. Absentee Mike Williams has also only lost one frame all season. The Jockey A are keeping up the pace as they demolished The Sws 12-2. In a totally one sided match which saw the Jockey win all three sessions, only a 2/3 for Mark Jones for Sws was their highlight as he carries on with his good form. Aled Lloyd 2/2 with the match frame against Carl Pryce before standing aside to give Dave Manuel a run out in the last session. The Misfits bounced back from a defeat against Llanbadarn to beat a resolute Herbs 9-5 with Neil Powell and Aled Evans both 2/2 being the difference. Lee Harris finally got his team over the line in the eleventh by beating Rich Jones.

There was plenty of noise in the Nomads v Jockey B match as the home side ran out 9-5 winners to chalk up their first win of the season. After the Jockey B beat their A side the week before, a lot would have been expected from them but found themselves 3-0 early doors. A slight comeback was halted as the Nomads went on to a 6-2 lead before Rob Griffiths 3/3 and finally Ian Coppin 2/3 finished them off and they'll look to take that form in to this weeks match against The Sws.

The Talbot Tigers are riding high in the league but were made to fight hard for an 8-6 win against bottom side Cefn Coch A. Mark Crees with a 3/3 continues his good form after a surprise move from the Full Montys, including the last frame win for both points after they found themselves 6-5 down. Dave Woosnam and Mark Brassington both 2/3 played their parts in the last session for the comeback.

It's a super Sunday of fixtures this week as the four teams who are expected to finish top four all play each other. The Full Montys take the short journey upstairs to play the Misfits whilst Llanbadarn host Jockey A with both

Severn St Mob hold Jesters to draw as Ballers keep on rolling in Div. Two

A close match was played out between the Severn St Mob and Jesters last week which was expected when two of the top half sides meet. A 3/3 for the Jesters Will Beddoes wasn't good enough to seal both points as they needed Ken Llewellyn to win the last frame against Tudor Lloyd Kerry to restore parity. That keeps both sides comfortable in the top half but have dropped a point further behind the leaders Bowling Ballers as they beat the Desert Rats 10-4 at home. The Rats started off well and kept the match even at 4-4 but then the hosts kicked in to another gear, winning all of the remaining six frames. Luke Williams 3/3 and Rhys Bell 2/2 were the top Ballers who have now won four matches in a row after their two initial draws.

With Cefn Coch B having their bye week, the Monty Queues took advantage of closing the gap as they beat the Jones and Co 8-6 in a derby match. After Joe Bowman-Long lost to young Rhys Jones by a 7 baller, he restored his composure to win his next two frames including the match frame in the thirteenth coincidentally against Rhys. Earlier Llion Jones for the home side beat Linda Andrew twice for a 2/2. That win puts the Queues within two points of the leaders but with a match in hand. The Jones & Co missed their Welsh International Laura who managed to get to the Last 16 of the ladies Singles in the recent European Championships.

The Red Lion are on back to back wins against bottom sides as they beat the Outcasts last week 9-5. Racing in to a 5-1 lead, the writing was on the wall however the Outcasts found a bit of resolve to win the next three with Wayne Crump on 2/3 on the night. Back came the Lions to win three themselves with Dwaine Evans and John Bunn both 3/3 being their top performers. That leaves the Outcasts looking for their first point of the season after week six. This week they take on the BullnHeifer at home with their fortunes surely going to change at some point with them being far too good of a team to struggle all season. They will meet the Bulls on the back of their second win of the season when they beat the Zimmers 9-5. All of those of experience that Owen Durbridge has accumulated in to his team hasn't exactly gone to plan at the moment as they fell to their fourth defeat. Kev Lewis and Kev Gittens both 3/3 for the Bulls were the main difference although the Zimmers Johnny Jerman and Kevin Mitchell both 2/3 showed that they can still produce some magic from their former years at the top level.

With the Bowling Ballers having their bye this week, the next four sides in the league all play each other as they try to close the gap.

Dolau B drop first point against Midnight Bowlers in Div Three.

So far this season, the Dolau B have recorded 100% win rate but last week found the Midnight Bowlers In no mood to cave in to them. It was a superb show from the lowly placed side who forced a draw and could have taken both points had it not been for Steve Tudor 3/3 winning the last frame. Tom Griffiths 3/3 making his first appearance of the season, was the backbone for the Bowlers and they will look to keep him in the side going forward. The Lion Caerhowel closed the gap to just one point after they won the top of the table clash against the Judges 9-5 who had to play without their Welsh International Rosie Morgan-Penny who was playing in Ireland. Racing in to a 5-1 start with Neil Gorman 2/3 and a 7 baller, the Lions just about hung on after a second half comeback from the Judges. Going down to the wire, it needed the Lions to win the last two frames from Charlie Weaver 2/3 and Jack Shepherd 3/3 to get over the line for a moral boosting win against their rivals. This weeks fixtures pit the two top sides Dolau B and Lion Caerhowel together. Who will hold their nerve the best ?

No Such drama for the Monty Melts who demolished the Dolau A 12-2 and bounced back to winning ways after last weeks defeat. Jon Jacobs 3/3, a 7 baller and the match frame as early as the tenth in what was a one sided match at the Dolau and lifts them to third in the league and keeps the Dolau A looking for their first point of the season.

Congratulations to Mo`s Misfits who chalked up their first point of the season with a 7-7 draw away to the Back Lane Bowlers. It could have been two points had it not been for Mark Evans 2/2 and Sam Woosnam 2/3 winning the last two frames for the home side. Eddie Bennett for the Misfits was their top player with a 3/3 and they can look forward to playing fellow strugglers Jury this week.

The Outbowlers are on a three match winning streak after they came through a tough battle against the Jury, finally winning 8-6. Nicky Morris and Thomas Smith both 2/2 for the Outs were the main difference after they raced in to a 5-1 lead but were made to hold on near the end. That lifts the Outbowlers up to seventh with a slight gap appearing to the bottom half of the table.

In the battle of the mid table fixture between Buck Yourself and the Woodenspooners, it was honours even at 7-7 to keep both just about hanging on to the top group. It all started well for the Buck, going in to a 4-0 lead but the Woodenspooners bounced back to take five of their own with Aron James 3/3 being the main instigator. Frames went every other until Huw Wainwright had to win the last to preserve parity for a very hard fought point.
