BIG WINS FOR THE FULL MONTYS, JOCKEY A & NOMADS

What should have been a close match between the Jockey A and third placed Misfits was anything but as the Churchstoke side showed their class with clinical finishing. Only a couple of half chances for the Misfits which weren't converted meant Jockey A won the first nine frame. For them to perform to that level against one of their closest rivals, it shows how badly they want their Premiership title back and the gulf that is developing between teams trying to catch the top two sides. Tomos Lloyd with a 3/3 and the match winning frame for a 12-2 win. The Jockey has their talisman Carl Clark back after he featured heavily in the Welsh Closed event making it to the Last 16 round, losing to fellow pro, Luke Sanges.

Four 7 ballers in a totally one side 14-0 win for the Full Montys against the Monty Teasers in another dominant performance. They also have a chance of joining the Jockey A on top of the league when they play their overdue match against Llanbadarn this week. As for the Teasers, they continue to get used to their new table after finishing fourth last season but languish in tenth so far.

Josh Owen has steadied the ship for the Nomads and last week had a superb 14-0 win over the Herbs away. New signing Rhys Butler with a 3/3 and that pushes them in to mid table and away from their usual relegation battle. Congratulations go to Rob Griffiths who performed superbly at last weeks Welsh Closed event. In a strong field of 220 players, Rob managed to get to the quarter finals. Rob took his place representing his local Machynlleth league.

Llanbadarn are up to fourth after they beat a strong Tigers side 10-4. After winning six of the first seven frames and finding the pool table an easier size for potting after coming straight off the snooker tables in the Monty Club, Llanbadarn weren't in any mood to hang about. Paul Robinson with a 3/3 and match frame against Kev Morris in the tenth.

Mark Jones is in inspirational form for The Sws this season and his 3/3 made light work against the Lion Cubs. After losing the first frame of the night, Sws then won the next eight on the bounce and that puts them within a point of the Cubs. After last weeks heroics against the Full Montys, Cefn Coch A found the Jockey B to be in no mood for another shock result. The Jockey moved from 4-2 up to 7-4 and had Sedgy 2/2 to thank for in the last frame when he beat Rich Bennett. The bottom side in their first season in the top league keep asking questions against the more experienced sides and will hope for a better second half of the season. No fixtures this week for Premiership sides so a free week to get team and individual cup matches played if possible.

Although unrelated to our pool league, there was a couple of fatal traffic incidents last week. As a lot of our members are now travelling regularly to venues, please make sure you allow sufficient time and if you're going to be late, let a player at the home venue know in advance.

Monty Queues and Severn St Mob catch chasing teams in Div Two

The Jockey Jesters continue to out perform their rivals and last week, beat the Red Lion 9-5. Ken Llewellyn and a Wayne Olden 3/3 did most of the work as the Jesters climbed two points ahead of the five sides chasing them.

Long term favourites, Bowling Ballers fell to a 10-4 defeat against the Severn St Mob who are starting to feel confident about a title / promotion push. Ellis Davie and Tudor Lloyd-Kerry both 3/3 being their star performers against what would have been a shell shocked Ballers side. At the start of the night, it would have felt like appoint dropped, but the Jones and Co had to show some mettle to get a point from the Desert Rats, coming from 7-2 behind to tie, and having to win the last five frames. No doubting who the current star player is at the moment as young Casey Pritchard with another 3/3 making that nine league frames on the bounce. Earlier, Gareth Bowen 2/3 had put the Rats on the brink of victory at 7-2.

The Monty Queues climbed level on points with Cefn Coch B with a 9-5 win, with Nick Lewis 3/3 being the main factor. Llion Jones 2/3 had earlier sealed the victory by beating Robbie James 0/3 in the tenth.

The Outcasts are showing the signs of improvement with a hard fought draw against the Zimmers. Mitch Harris 2/3 had put the “oldies” on the brink of a win but back came the Outcasts to tie through Darren Robertson and finally Paul Jones as they look to fend off relegation which should be un-heard of for such an experienced team.

Such is the closeness of Division two that a couple of back to back wins from the few sides down the bottom and they could find themselves in the top half of the league when it resumes on Dec. 1st.

Lion Caerhowel extend lead at top of Div. Three.

The Lions bounced back from their only defeat of the season to beat the Outbowlers 8-6 away thanks in part to a Duan Redman 3/3. At 5-2 down, it looked like the Lions might have caved in but their resolve is what title contenders are made of and they duly won the next six frames on the bounce.

The Lions nearest rivals, Monty Melts, could only manage a draw against mid table Woodenspooners having lead 7-5. Aron James and Nathan Hamer both 2/2 for the Woodens were the Melts thorn in the side as they won the last two frames. After beating the Lions last week, the Melts now trail them by one point.

The league may need to start a Just Giving page to the Dolau A as they still search for their first point of the season. Last week the Back Lane Bowlers beat them 13-1 after Sam Woosnam with a 3/3 beat Geraint Woosnam in the ninth frame. That lifts the Bowlers up to sixth as we near the half way point of the season.

In the battle of third and fourth, the Judges lost away to Dolau B 9-5. Lydon Birch with a 3/3 and the match frame in the thirteenth against in form Sam Young was the main difference between the two sides hoping to make a promotion charge next Spring. That win puts the Dolau B level on points with the Judges in third place.

In the basement battle, Mos Misfits lost out to the Midnight Bowlers and lose a little more ground. A run of seven frames out of eight in the middle section of the match for the Midnighters got them over the line for a 10-4 win with Josh Ross being the only 3/3 scorer.

Buck Yourself are back to winning ways after beating the Jury 9-5 away. In their first win in a month, it needed a 3/3 from Clive Whitehead to get them both points after they trailed 3-2 from the first session. 2/3 for the Jury's Adam Bowen.

Aron James leads the Player of the Year award with 17 frames, followed by Jon Jacobs on 15. Sam Young and Steve Tudor are on 14 wins.
