Jockey A and Full Montys draw in Super Sunday clash

The El Classico match between the Jockey A and Full Montys didn't disappoint as they played out a 7-7 draw. That included five 7 ballers with three of them in the first session as the Montys raced in to a 4-1 lead. Aled Lloyd 2/3 pegged the scoreline back to 4-6 as he beat Drew Hughes also 2/3. Drew then beat Matt Davies to take them on the brink of what would have been an excellent away win however the Jockey bounced back through Aled and Tomos Lloyd and finally Carl Clark 2/3 when he 7 balled Daf Rowlands in the last frame. That keeps the Jockey just the one point ahead of their rivals as the league has reached the halfway mark.

With the Llanbadarn v Cefn Coch A match postponed, the Misfits went third when they battled to a hard fought point against the Talbot Tigers. Mark Brassington 3/3 was the top Tiger with Dave Woosnam 2/3 and 7 balling Aled Evans 2/3 in the thirteenth frame to put them within the win however Mark Crees suffered an unfortunate roll in the last frame which caused his last ball to drop in rather than block a pocket, leaving no shot on the black against Rich Evans 2/3. Carl Hanson also with a 2/3 for the Misfits as they move a point ahead in third having played a match more.

The Sws closed the gap with a 9-5 over the Jockey B who continue to under perform this season. The Jockey turned around a 3-1 deficit to go 4-3 up but that only spurred a returning Graham Ottaway 3/3 and two 7 ballers as the Sws ran riot winning the next six frames. Mark Jones 2/3 has also had a great first half of the season as he features high in the player of the year award.

The Lion Cubs came away from The Herbs with a 9-5 win after Barry Owen 2/3 beat Richard Jones in the twelfth. Nigel Owen bettered that with a 3/3 as they sit comfortably in mid table.

The Monty derby (one of 150 this season) between the Teasers and Nomads ended in a draw after the Teasers came back from 3-0 and 7-5 down thanks to a 3/3 for Ed Lewis and 2/3 for Danny Francis. Rhys Butler had put the Nomads on the hill for the win. Andrew Coppin and Alan Walker 2/3 with 7 ballers as the Nomads ended the first half of the season just below midway in eighth position.

Teams playing Cefn Coch A in Jan 2025 will be playing at Argae Hall instead.

MEMORIAL CUP NEWS

This week, we begin the Memorial Cup and gives us a chance to remember the leagues former players who have sadly departed. As a mark of honour, it would be fitting if we could hold a minutes silence around the table before our matches. The names below are engraved on the Memorial cup with Dai Lewis to be added before Finals Day next April.

Top four all win to start a breakaway in Div. Two.

The Jones and Co were expected to make the Jockey Jesters night very uncomfortable and that played out when the Jones's went 3-0 away. That only spurred the Jesters on as they only lost one more frame all night which was sandwiched between to groups of five frames for an excellent two points as they continue to run away with the league. Youngsters Harry Pritchard and Ryan Hamer both 3/3 were on form as they look for back to back promotions to the Premier league. Jamie Jones 2/3 for the Jones's can be pleased with his return.

In the relegation fight, the Desert Rats overcome bottom placed Outcasts 9-5 who will be hoping for a better second half of the season. Troy Palmer with a 3/3 saw off Darren Robertson for the match frame as the Rats sit uncomfortably only three points from bottom.

Steve Jones for the Severn St Mob recorded another 3/3 for the second week running as they battled to a 9-5 win over the BullnHeifer and sit four points behind in second. Clive Jarman put the match to bed by beating Chris Thomas. Alec Scarborough also with a 3/3 for the Sportsman side.

The Bowling Ballers are just about in the promotion race after they beat the Monty Queues 10-4. In a closely contested match, frames more or less went every other until Gareth McMurdo 2/2 and Barry Shafe 3/3 put the Ballers 6-3 up. Joe Bowman-Long 2-3 pulled a frame back but that saw the end of the night for the Queues as the Ballers ran out the next four frames to make the scoreline look more emphatic.

After beating the Red Lion 10-4, the Cefn Coch B sit second in the league by frame difference. Clive Langford with a 3/3 and a 7 baller along with another 7 baller from Tudor Jones for Cefn Coch who ran riot with the scores at 3-2. Winning the next seven frames culminating in a Robbie James 2/3 and the match frame. Could they be promoted and take Cefn Coch A's place in the premiership next season?

Dolau B go top as Lion Caerhowel lose in Div. Three

The Dolau B climbed to the top of the table last week after they beat the Monty Melts 9-5. Third placed Melts went 4-2 up but the Dolau are a determined bunch and powered back with six frames on the bounce culminating in star man Lydon Birch 2/3 beating David Norbury for the match. That two pints was enough to climb to the top as rivals Lion Caerhowel suffered a heavy 11-3 defeat to the Back lane Bowlers. It was a superb win for the Bowlers as they move up to fifth. Sam Woosnam with a 3/3 and the match winning frame against an out of sorts Charlie weaver 0/2.

The Judges closed the gap to the top but remain fourth after they narrowly beat the Outbowlers 8-6. The Outbowlers put up a real effort going 5-2 up which tested the Judges resolve. Back they come with four frames on the bounce which ended in the last from when Rosie Morgan-Penny who is celebrating here Welsh call up for next year, beat Rob Bridgen. Howard Clements with a 3/3 for the Outbowlers.

Mo's Misfits won their second match of the season with a 9-5 win over mid table Woodenspooners. Huw Humphreys with a 3/3 was in excellent form for the home side including beating player of the year Aron James, and he left it to colleague Josh Jones to beat Ricky penny in the eleventh frame. Well done to the Misfits who have struggled this season but kept going and will hope for a better second half of the season.

Buck Yourself weren't in the frame of mind for giving anything just before Christmas as they beat bottom side Dolau A 13-1. With a little more consistency, the Buck could challenge for a promotion place with most of their defeats being narrow ones which has cost them dearly. Spare a thought this Christmas as the Dolau A still search for their first point. Maybe they should start a JustGiving page. Joking apart, stick at it Dolau A, you'll get the page headline when the first point comes.

The match between the Jury and Midnight Bowlers will be played at a later date.
