Full Montys demolish The Sws to keep pressure on Jockey A

In a dominant performance, the Full Montys handsomely beat The Sws 12-2 in what was expected to be a closer match. Racking up three 7 ballers along the way through Glyn Davies 2/2, Drew Hughes 3/3 and Bob Pritchard 2/3, it was left to Jake Ottaway 2/2 to win the match frame in the ninth. Only Mark Jones 2/3 had any joy for The Sws as he continues his excellent form this season.

The Jockey A remain at the top of the league by one point as they beat the Nomads 9-5 at home. After being 7 balled by Josh Owen in the first session, Steve Davies bounced back to win his next two frames including a 7 baller against Dan Stephens for the match. Carl Clark was their man of the match with a 3/3 while Josh also racked a 3/3 for the Nomads who sit comfortably in mid table and away from an annual relegation fight. The Misfits tend to do just enough to get over the line, as was the case last week when they beat the Lion Cubs 8-6. Locked at 3-3, the Misfits then went on a five frame run culminating in 2/2's for Rich Evans and Carl Williams and a 3/3 from the enigmatic but memory challenged Carl Hanson. Edward Jones and John Roberts both 2/2 for the Cubs. That keeps the Misfits in third place, one point ahead of Llanbadarn who have a match in hand. A surprisingly subdued Jockey B fell to an 8-6 defeat to Llanbadarn. Dave Morgan and Paul Robinson both 3/3 for the South Powys based side playing from the Monty Club. Callum Bishop, Jake Owen and Phil Richards all with 2/3 for the Churchstoke side. Surprisingly, they find themselves third from bottom and won't want to get involved in a relegation fight in the last few months of the season. The Talbot Tigers started January off in the worst possible way as they capitulated the first eight frames to the Monty Teasers. That win included Ed Lewis 7 balling Scott Clifford to seal both points, as they climb to within one point of the Tigers. Only Mark Brassington 2/3 had any joy on the Monty Table for the Tigers who seem to struggle when their star man Mark Crees blows cold. Nigel Roberts 2/3, Mark Davies 2/2 as was Phil Jones and Russ Evans for the Teasers. It doesn't get any easier this week for the Tigers as they take on league leaders Jockey A whilst the Full Montys have a tricky derby against the Nomads.

It's with great sadness that the league has been informed of the passing of Philip Davies who played for many years in the successful Llanbadarn team and South Powys county side. Our deepest condolences go to his family and friends. Phil's wife Amy, gave her permission for this photo to be used.

*Out of respect, his name will be added to our Memorial trophy.

Zimmers run Jesters close as Jones & Co beat Severn St Mob in Div Two

The Jesters have enjoyed a good first half of the season however they started the second half off a little more nervous as the struggling Zimmers kept pace with them right up to 6-6. Kev Mitchell 3/3 and Johnny Jerman 2/3 were the main reason for that however the Jesters have back to back promotions in mind, maybe even taking the Jockey B's place. Ken Llewellyn 2/3 put them 7-6 up and young Ryan Hamer finished the match in style as he beat Owen Durbridge with a 7 baller.

Cefn Coch B in second place had a scare themselves as they trailed the BullnHeifer 2-0 but then showed some grit by winning the next five frames. Once again Tudor Jones 3/3 and rob Davies 2/3 were the star men for Cefn Coch who are playing fro Argae Hall in January. Kev Lewis for the Bulls tried his best with a 3/3 however the match was won by Tudor in the twelfth when he beat Kev Gittins.

From 4-1 down, the writing was on the wall for the Bowling Ballers against the Red Lion. The Ballers have caught up with the chasing pack over recent weeks after a poor start, battled back with a run of eight frames in the next nine with Barry Shafe 3/3 in fine form. Gareth McMurdo held his nerve to beat in form Rich Wyatt for the match in the thirteenth to keep them on for an outside chance of promotion.

An Excellent 9-5 away win for the Jones and Co against in form Severn St Mob saw 2/2's for Laura and Alan Jones. That after young Rhys had taught them a lesson in practice earlier in the evening. Tom Andrew also chipped in with a 2/2 with the confident Rhys 1/2 winning the match against Alec Scarborough in the thirteenth. That defeat will hurt the Mob as they could have gone second with a win after a recent good spell.

The Monty Club derby between the Queues and Desert Rats was a close affair as you'd imagine. Gareth Bowen with a 3/3 for the Rats with Liam Bishop and Neal Pratten both 2/3 for the Queues which brought the match to 6-6. After Gareth won his third, it was left to Andy Meek to beat Liam in the last frame to give the rats the win and a little breathing space above the relegation fight.

This week top meets bottom when the Jesters take on the Outcasts who had their bye last week.

Top five all win in Div Three title fight

The Dolau B have been consistent all season and started the New Year off in the same manner, beating the Outbowlers 9-5. Stacked with experience, the Dolau B bear all the hallmarks of division champions with Steve Tudor 3/3 setting up Allen Birch to get them over the line when he beat Callum Hamilton in the penultimate frame. Howard Clements with a 2/3 for the Outbowlers was their top performer.

Keeping pace with them is the Lions of Caerhowel. Beating the Judges 9-5, means they tie at the top on twenty points and only two frames behind on aggregate. Jack Shepherd with a 3/3 and a Duan Redman 2/3 for the Lions as they set up an intriguing second half of the season. Adam Bowen with a 3/3 for the Judges hit some form.

The Monty Melts had a good 9-5 away win to a strengthened Buck Yourself who have welcomed Ricky Farrington back. He hit a 3/3 but to no avail as Charlie Martin recorded the same for the Melts with David Norbury 2/2 including the match winning frame against Tom Meredith. They sit just one point behind in third and ready if the top two slip up.

The Courthouse Judges sit a further point behind and showed signs of nerves as they laboured to an 8-6 win away to lowly Mo's Misfits. Dave Roberts and Richard Clifton as they left it to star player Sam Young to wrap both points up against Julie Cutler in the thirteenth frame. Josh Jones with a 2/3 for the Misfits. The Judges now face a tough match this week against the Back lane Bowlers who sit fifth in the league.

The Back Lane Bowlers made light work of their 9-5 win at home to the Woodenspooners. Only two sessions were required to get to the win mark as Shaun Gillet 2/2 beat Nathan Hamer. James Bevan also scored a 2/2 for the Spoons as both teams sit comfortably in mid table.

Dolau A and the Midnight Bowlers needs to be re-arranged.
