Tigers roar to victory over Jockey A as Full Montys go top

A superb 8-6 win for the Talbot Tigers against the Jockey A has allowed the Full Montys to go top with nine matches to go. Even in their dreams, they wouldn't have expected to go 5-2 up but back came the Jockey like true champions to lead 6-5. Mark Brassington with an excellent 3/3 including a 7 baller restored parity. That then left Mark Crees to beat Tomos Lloyd and finally Scott Clifford also 3/3 to beat Steve Davies for the match and both points.

The Full Montys would have loved to see the live scores via our app system as they made light work of beating the Nomads 10-4 and racking up another four 7 ballers. Drew Hughes with two of those in his 3/3 including the match frame against Alan Walker who himself has 2/3. Bob Pritchard also with a 3/3 for the Monty Club team. That now means that our leagues top two sides are spilt by one point and have the same massive plus 68 frame aggregate. Will there be more twists to come in the closing weeks? The Monty Misfits visited Cefn Coch A who are playing from Argae Hall in January and came away with an 11-3 win. Rich Evans with a 2/2 both against a luckless Luke Mumford, and a few superb clearances from Carl Williams 3/3 made for an unusually relaxing nights work for the Misfits. Twm Foulkes with a 2/3 was his teams star player with his only blemish, losing to Jason Stokes in the match clinching frame in the eleventh. Llanbadarn are keeping pace with the leading three as they beat The Sws 8-6 and still have one match to re-arrange against Cefn Coch. Paul Robinson with a 3/3 and two 7 ballers. Dave Morgan with an unusual 1/3 return but that one was the match frame against Carl Pryce after Josh Allen and Mark Jones both 2/3 had kept The Sws in the hunt. The Jockey B were taken to the last two frames before they finally beat The Herbs 9-5 at home. Jake Owen with a 3/3 and continued his good County form earlier in the day and also Otis Powell with the same return and the match frame against a luckless Roger Lovatt 0/3. Rich Jones with a 2/3 was top Herb. Five 7 ballers in the match between the Lion Cubs and Teasers with two for Danny Francis and a last frame win over Mark Woosnam for an excellent night for him. Earlier, John Roberts also chalked up two 7 ballers for the Cubs as they both continue to unusually hover below mid table.

Outcasts stun Jesters as top three all lose away in Div Two

The Outcasts brought their A game to the table last week to shock the visiting runaway leaders Jockey Jesters, sending them back home with a 9-5 defeat. Maybe this win will give the Outcasts the belief that they should be at the top end of the table instead of being in a relegation battle. After going 4-0 down, the Jesters made a mini revival however Darren Robertson killed off the match when he beat jesters star man Wayne Olden in the twelfth. 3/3 for both Aaron Thorpe and Wayne Crump for the shock result of the week.

The Jones and Co are in good form at the moment and they stunted the Cefn Coch B promotion push, beating them 9-5. Jamie Jones with a 3/3 for them after they raced in to a 7-1 lead. Back came Cefn Coch winning the next four frames but young Casey Pritchard beat Tudor Jones in the penultimate frame to settle his sides nerves. Well done to Casey who is over 50% win rate having not played at this level before. Robbie James with a 3/3 for the villagers who remain second. Also showing signs of the promotion jitters was the Bowling Ballers who lost to the BullnHeifer 9-5. A winning run of six frames in the first nine took the Bulls to 7-2 which the Ballers wouldn't have expected from the third from bottom team. Kev Lewis with a 3/3, matched by Richard Davies which included the match frame when he beat Barry Shafe.

Those wins for the bottom sides means the Red Lion are in a relegation fight after they lost to the Monty Queues 10-4. After losing the first frame, the Queues went on a seven frame winning streak, culminating in Owain Wilding beating Lee Cruse as early as the tenth for both points. Joe Bowman-Long with a 3/3 for the away side. Llion Jones for the Queues is now added to the growing list of our players who will represent Wales after his Under 23 call up. Well done Llion.

The Zimmers completed the double over the Severn St Mob, winning 9-5 to ease any relegation fears. Kev Mitchell with a 3/3 and Owen Durbridge beating Ellis Davies for the match. Steve Jones with a 2/2 for the SSM as he remains top of the divisions stats.

Lion, Dolau B and Melts all win in Div Three

It's starting to look like a three horse race now for the title after the Judges and Back Lane Bowlers played out a draw to fall further behind. As expected when third met fourth, a close match ensued. Rosie Morgan-Penny 2/2 took the Judges to 5-3 but back came the Bowlers to 6-6 with Shaun Gillet 2/3. Amy Jones then beat Shaun but the match finished honours even when Jacob Jones 3/3 beat Rich Clifton in the last. That point did neither team much use as the top three all won. Lion Caerhowel made light work beating bottom side Dolau A 11-3 with Nelly Gorman 3/3 continuing his good form along with Niall Morgan with the same return. They stay top on aggregate from the Dolau B who were made to work hard against the second from bottom side Mo's Misfits, eventually winning 8-6. Andrew Powell 2/2 beating Welsh ladies representative for the match frame as late as the thirteenth. The Misfits had earlier gone 3-0 up which would have sent alarm bells ringing for the Dolau.

Beating the Outbowlers 10-4 kept the Melts only one point behind the top two and shows just how competitive this division is. After mid table Outbowlers had gone 3-1 up, the Melts retaliated by winning nine of the last ten frames. Charlie Martin 3/3 and Stephen Penny 2/2 being the pick of the match for the Melts. Michael Goodwin also with a 2/2 and it was his frame against Callum Hamilton that settled the match.

Buck Yourself sit sixth in the league after they beat the Midnight Bowlers 11-3. Stephen Ross with a 2/3 for the Bowling Club side but to no avail as the Bucks reeled off the first nine frames with Dave Pugh and Huw Wainwright both 3/3 being they star performers.

The mid table match between the Jury and Woodenspooners ended 7-7. With the Woodenspooners winning the first session 4-1, the Jury hit a 4-1 of their own in the second session.

Tom Owen 2/2 and a 7 baller put the Jurt 7-6 up but Aron James also 2/2 hit back for the Spoons as he knocked in a 7 baller in the last frame, his sixth of the season so far.
