Divisional cups dish up a few surprises in Div 2 and 3

With a handicap system in place to aid the lower table teams in each division, coupled with the 15/1 format, you would expect a few of the big boys to tumble however that didn't seem to be the case in the Premier cup. Lowly Jockey B who are stacked with quality players gave the Misfits a run for their money, finally succumbing 8-7. The tie of the next round pits the leagues top two side Jockey A and Full Montys together which has had the conspiracy theorists reaching out for more tin foil hats.

In the Division Two cup, the Outcasts beat the top side Jockey Jesters for the second time in a week, matched by lowly Desert Rats when they beat the Severn St Mob. Joining them in the Quarters is the Zimmers after they beat Jones and Co in the three ties that went away from the top sides.

In Division Three, all the ties went the way of the top half of the league except for the Midnight Bowlers beating the Melts 11-4.
