Full Montys beat Llanbadarn to stay top, as bottom two both lose to all but seal their relegation.

The Llanbadarn team having paid their respects to their colleague and friend Phil Davies earlier in the day decided to go ahead with their match against the Full Montys as scheduled. Starting off in superb fashion and racing in to a 4-1 lead, Llanbadarn ran an emotional rollercoaster but the champions aren't renowned for caving in. Back they came with a Bob Pritchard 2/3 and yet another 7 baller making it eight for him this season, to go ahead. Jake Ottaway then beat Dave Morgan 2/3 to poke their noses in front at 7-6, leaving it in the reliable hands of Drew Hughes 3/3 to beat Justin Bishop in the last frame for both points. Drew himself having eleven 7 ballers to date. Given Phil's funeral earlier in the day, no doubt the match was played out with a poignant feeling for a well respected member of our league. RIP Phil. Three points behind but with a match in hand, the Jockey A haven't given up on the title just yet and last week did their aggregate no harm by hammering the Lion Cubs 13-1. The Cubs surprisingly are hovering just below mid table but had no answer and in fact it wasn't until the tenth frame before they chalked up their first frame. Will the season go to the very last match when the y top two lock horns and maybe for the crown?

After beating their relegation rivals The Herbs in a re-arranged match, Cefn Coch A put up a resolute battle against the Teasers but unfortunately came away with an 8-6 defeat with Ed Lewis 3/3 in form and Danny Francis also with a 2/3. That leaves both of the bottom teams with four points after the Herbs lost 10-4 to a strong looking Sws side. Mark Jones 3/3 continues his excellent season with Graham Ottaway chipping in with a 2/2 and Josh Allen 2/3. Unfortunately for the bottom two who were promoted last season, it seems they've hit the Premier league in what possibly is the strongest for many a year.

The Jockey B made a real fight of it when they visited the Misfits, however a run of five frames for the home side early on (albeit quite a few given to them) put them 6-2 up. Back came the Jockey winning four of the next five with Phil Richards 3/3 in superb form only for Neil Powell to beat Jake Owen in the last nervy frame. The Nomads wasted a 5-2 lead against the Tigers when Mark Brassington and Mark Crees both 2/3 clawed themselves back. Rhys Butler took the Nomads to 6-5 but back came the Tigers again, winning the last three through both Marks and finally Kev Morris 2/2 as they remain fifth in the league.

Jones & Co climb to third after Bowling Ballers win in Div. Two

As expected when two teams in the top five meet, a close match between the Jones and Co and Bowling Ballers played out. With the frames going alternate to 4-4, that's when the J&C closed the match out in style, winning five of the last six with Tom Andrew 3/3 being the pick of the team. That two points moves them up to third after the Severn St Mob were held to a home draw against the Outcasts who have finally arrived late to the season party.

After a first session 4-1 lead, the Outcasts were made to work hard for their point with the SSM battling back to 6-6 with Alec Scarborough and Clive Jarman both 2/2. Phil Fage 3/3 then put his side back in to the lead only for Tudor Lloyd Kerry to beat Wayne Crump in the last. That point moves the Outcasts off bottom spot where they've been all season due to the Red Lion losing to the BullnHeifer 8-6. Giving them a 5-1 lead was always going to be hard to come back from however Lee Cruse 3/3 tried to rally the Lions back to 5-7. Kev Gittins 2/3 then settled the Bulls nerves when he beat Graham Lewis for the match frame.

Cefn Coch B had little trouble in beating the vastly experienced Zimmers, eventually running out 9-5 with Clive Langford and Rob Francis both 3/3 being the star men for the villagers. Johnny Jerman continues his hot streak for the Zimmers with a 2/3 and boasting an 80% win rate. The Zimmers will want a few more wins before they can relax and not get sucked in to a relegation fight.

The Jockey Jesters started their match off in good fashion, going in to a 4-1 lead against an improving Desert Rats. They then allowed the Rats back in to the match at 4-5 with the reliable Gareth Bowen 2/3 being in form again. That only inspired the Jesters on and Ken Llewellyn 3/3 proved the main difference. The match was sealed by Wayne Olden in the thirteenth as he returns to his early season form, beating Gareth.

This week the Outcasts get to test their recent improvement as they take on second placed Cefn Coch B as the Jesters have their bye, whilst the Jones and Co face a potential banana skin against the Red Lion.

PLEASE NOTE THAT TABLES CAN'T BE RESERVED IN THE MONTY CLUB AFTER 4PM ON SUNDAYS FROM NOW ON.

Dolau B slip to third as title race hots up in Div. Three

The long time leaders Dolau B slipped to only their second defeat of the season which meant they dropped down to third in the table. The Backlane Bowlers will have taken great pleasure in their excellent 8-6 win. Jacob Jones with a 3/3 and a 7 baller was in superb form. It will now be interesting to see how the Dolau bounce back from this deflating defeat as they hand the title initiative over to the Lion Caerhowel.

The Lions would have loved seeing that final score after they made light work of beating the Midnight Bowlers 10-4. Not very often does a team win all three sessions but that's exactly what the Lions did with Duan Redman and Niall Morgan both 3/3 being the pick of the night. They stay a point ahead of the Monty Melts who beat the Exchange Misfits 11-3. Stephen Penny with a 2/2 and the match frame as early as the tenth of the night after he beat Reino DeClerk. With only two points separating the top three sides, there will be more twist and turns in the league as the "title jitters" sets in?

The Courthouse Judges failed to capitalise and close the gap at the top as they lost the derby match to the Jury 9-5. Tom Owen with a 3/3 was the man of the hour for the Jury along with Stef Alsdolf 2/3. That was an excellent derby win for the Jury given they found themselves 3-0 down.

Buck Yourself had a comfortable night at home, running out 11-3 winners against the Outbowlers. Huw Wainwright with another 3/3 as did Gareth Edmunds and Jake Meredith. Consistency will be the key they will look for next season if they want to be involved at the business end of the season but they do prove they can put a good performance in occasionally.

Spare a thought for an unfortunate Dolau A side who fell to their fourteenth straight defeat however they put up a superb show against the Woodenspooners who had to win the last two frames of the night for both points. Aron James with a 3/3 is a usual given result, followed by Ricky penny winning the match frame against Bev Lewis.

Early Joanne Davies 2/3 had given the Dolau side some hope of getting their first point. Will their first point or points arrive in the Dolau derby in a weeks time?
