Herbs and Cefn Coch A show battling qualities against top teams.

If they are to be relegated from what is probably the strongest Premier league to date, the Herbs and Cefn Coch A will go down fighting. Last week the Herbs gave Llanbadarn a scare when they fought back from 3-0 down to level 3-3. Unfortunately that spurred on the South Powys lads to win the next three frames with Paul Robinson 3/3 continuing his excellent season. Richard Jones for the Herbs then completed his 3/3 but Dave Morgan 2/3 completed the match with a 7 baller against Roger Lovatt in the twelfth.

Cefn Coch A took on the Jockey A which is a daunting task for anyone but they dared to go 3-2. Unfortunately for them, the Jockey are stacked with experienced International players and back they came, winning the next five to poke their noses in front at 7-3. Tomos Lloyd completed his 3/3 when he beat Alun Williams for both points with the match finishing 9-5. Rich Bennett and Rob Huxley with excellent 2/2's for Cefn Coch.

The Full Montys enjoyed their trip to the Talbot Berriew and found the Tigers a bit toothless as a contest. Drew Hughes with a 3/3 and two 7 ballers to add to his tally, and Bob Pritchard also with a 3/3 as he goes top of the player of the year stats.

The Monty Teasers had a slow start to the season but have climbed to fifth after they won their fourth match on the bounce, this time beating the Jockey B 8-6 away. Ed Lewis proves Mr Reliable time and time again and it was his 3/3 and the match frame in the thirteenth against Callum Bishop which proved to be the final blow. Danny Francis also with a 3/3 to continue his recent good form. That leaves a good Jockey B side languishing fourth from bottom.

Aled Evans took his seven man strong squad to the Sws who are a match for anyone on their day and started sprightly going in to a 4-0 lead. There was no let up as that progressed to 8-2 with Lee Harris beating Stafford in the ninth to seal an early finish. That keeps the Misfits third as they have a very tough match this week against rivals Llanbadarn. The Lion Cubs are having a stop start season but are always a tough team to break down which the Nomads found out last week. After going 4-3 up, the Nomads found the going hard, with the Cubs returning to lead 7-4 via John Roberts and Ed Jones 2/2 being the main protagonists. That left Barry Owen to beat Dan Stephens in the last frame to seal a very hard fought two points and lift them within reach of the end of season cash prizes.

Outcasts stun Cefn Coch B and hand title initiative to Jesters.

The Outcasts have finally started clicking at their new venue and last week, Cefn Coch B felt the full force as they went home with an 11-3 defeat which gives the Jesters a free run to the Division Two title. The match started off as per the form book as the villagers took a 3-1 lead however full credit must go to the Outcasts who have under performed for most of the season. Back they came with 3/3's for Aaron Thorpe and Phil Fage to leave a shell shocked Cefn Coch four points behind the leaders, having played one match more. They now have the Jones and Co breathing down their necks, only two points behind but a game in hand after they had their match called off against the Red Lion who now prop up the table. The Severn St Mob also suffered the promotion jitters after they fell to an 8-6 defeat to the Desert rats who are keen to avoid relegation. Clearly playing a lot of snooker is helping Josh Righelato 2/2 and Gareth Bowen 3/3 as they scored full marks for the Rats, and their Troy Palmer finished the tie off when he beat in form Tudor Lloyd-Kerry 2/3. Clearly we're at that stage of the season where winners can't be easily picked by their league placings.

The Zimmers have a little of work to be down to avoid the dreaded drop and last week feel to a penultimate frame win for Gareth McMurdo 2/3 of the Bowling Ballers. Missing Johnny Jerman, the Zimmers Mitch Harris and Alan Davies both chipped in with 2/3's but to no avail. Luke Williams of the Ballers who was the Premier leagues player of the year a few years ago recorded a 3/3 and they still have aspirations of a promotion, sitting in fourth and just two points behind second place.

The match between the BullnHeifer and Monty Queues was also called off and needs to be re-arranged.

Steve Jones of the Severn St Mob leads the player of the year award with 21 frames. Next is Gareth Bowen on 20, with Rob Francis of Cefn Coch B on 18. Kev Lewis, Tudor Lloyd-Kerry, Clive Langford and Wayne Olden are all with 17 wins.

Melts take the advantage in Div. Three as Dolau B slip.

With the Lion Caerhowel match against Buck Yourself being postponed, the Melts took full advantage by narrowly beating the Back Lane Bowlers 8-6. That defeat all but ends the Bowlers title challenge with the writing on the wall after the melts went 3-0 up. Back came the Bowlers to 3-4 but a 2/2 for in form Charlie Martin sent the melts on their way again. Stephen Penny made up for sitting out the first session with his own 2/2 including the match frame in the second to last frame against Sam Woosnam.

Going to the Dolau B with only three players, the Jury weren't expecting much but those three excelled themselves, coming away with a very creditable 7-7 draw. 3/3 for Tom Owen and Adam Bowen including the match frame against Mark Powell. It's not an ideal scenario turning up short of players as in this case, they had to give five frames away. Also the opposition turn up wanting to play frames rather than being gifted so the league trusts the Jury can fulfil the rest of the season with a full side.

Another defeat for the bottom placed side Dolau A, this time losing to the Judges 11-3 with Richard Clifton 3/3 being their top performer. Dave Roberts 2/3 held his nerve as he beat Joanne Davies for a fast two points in the eleventh frame. The Dolau A could gain their first point or points this week in style when they take on their table sharing B side. An excellent 8-6 win for the Midnight Bowlers away to the Woodenspooners with Josh Ross 3/3 taking top honours. The Spoons did make a late comeback from going 5-0 down but to no avail after Josh beat Jean in the eleventh for 8-3 before the Spoons made the scoreline look more respectable, winning the last three frames. The Exchange Misfits won their third match of the season when they visited the Outbowlers. After going 4-0 down, the Outbowlers staged a mini comeback to 3-4 but Eddie Bennet 3/3 steadied the ship for the Misfits before Huw Humphreys 2/3 beat Rob Bridgen for the match. 2/3's for both Oliver Hall and Jordan Lewis for the Outbowlers the table.
