Jockey B dent A team Premier League title push

With the B side taking on their illustrious table sharing A side at the Jockey, you can never assume the match result given the poles that the teams are apart in the league. That was more than evident last week as the B's rushed in to a 5-1 lead with an excellent 2/2 back to back for Julian Marsh making his debut. Back came the former champions with five frames of their own on the bounce to stick their noses 6-5 ahead. Carl Clark with a 3/3 although he had his work cut out to win the third against an in form Julian. Tomos Lloyd put his side on the brink of an excellent comeback win at 7-6 claiming his second 7 baller of the night only for Callum Bishop to beat Matt Davies in the last frame of an enthralling match. That leaves the Jockey A, two points and surely have to beat the champions on the last day of the season.

The Full Montys had earlier beaten The Herbs 11-3 with yet another 3/3 for Drew Hughes who is catching up in the player of the year award. Such is the fire power at captain Jake's disposal, four of his players feature in the top ten of the stats.

Llanbadarn missed a chance to close the gap to third after the Misfits restricted them to a draw in the Monty Club derby. Dave Morgan with a 3/3 including two 7 ballers was in his usual form, but Jason Stokes and Lee Harris both 2/2 for the Misfits made sure the match finished honours even to keep the three point advantage over their rivals.

If they are relegated, the Cefn Coch A are going down with a fight. Finding themselves 6-1 down to the Nomads, they fought back to 6-5 with a Twm Foulkes 2/2. Matt Rawsthorne then put the Nomads 7-5 up only for Richard Bennett 2/2 and Jamie Huxley 2/3 to restore parity.

In the battle of mid table, this seasons Mr Reliable Mark Jones for the Sws put his side 7-6 up with another 3/3 only for the Teasers own Mr Reliable Ed Lewis 2/3 to tie the match when he beat Carl Pryce in the last frame.

The Lion Cubs go level with the Talbot Tigers by virtue of their 9-5 win against them. 2/2 for captain Llyr Thomas and the match frame against the Tigers captain Scott Clifford in the eleventh showed how dominant the Cubs were. After an indifferent January, Mark Crees 3/3 returned to top form for the Tigers, but on this occasion, it was the Cubs who won the battle of the big cats.

Thank you to all of our venues for their hospitality and good food at the end of our pool matches.

Jones & Co close in on promotion place in Div. Two.

With the Jesters seemingly on a title procession, all eyes move to the runners up spot. Jones and Co are in good form but last week laboured to an 8-6 win over the lowly BullnHeifer. Youngster Rhys Jones is becoming the star of the Jones family and it was his last frame win over Kev Gittins 2/3 which gave them both points and close the gap on Cefn Coch B. Earlier Linda Andrew knocked in a 7 baller for a 2/3 performance. That defeat keeps the Bulls second from bottom. Cefn Coch B may have thought the match was in the bag at 7-4 against lowly Desert Rats but a super 3/3 from Josh Righelato made it honourable even in the last frame against Rob Davies. Strangely the Rats top performer Gareth Bowen only played one frame. Tudor Jones 2/3 had given his side hope of a win when he put the villagers 7-4 up. They now sit one point ahead of the Jones's having played one match more.

The Outcasts claimed another point when they took on the Bowling Ballers. Confidence breeds confidence and with 2/3's for Paul Jones and Wayne Crump who beat Gareth McMurdo in the last frame, that is now four matches undefeated as they move out of the bottom two for the first time this season.

The Jockey jesters welcomed back Ryan Hamer and he was on flames (no pun intended) this week with a 3/3 against the Monty Queues. Wayne Olden also with a 3/3 but it was left to Martin Williams to win the last frame for a hard fought 8-6 win.

The Jesters now sit comfortably at the top of the division with a five point lead. The Zimmers moved in to mid table when Owen Durbridge with a polished performance of 3/3 finally beat Rory Sheen 2/3 in the last frame. The Zimmers had Stuart Owen making his first start to the season in place of Kev Mitchell as they struggled to break down a resolute Red Lion. Life in the old dogs yet as Terry Marshall also recorded a 3/3 for the aptly named Zimmers. The Red Lion sit at the foot of the table with this 8-6 defeat and will surely have to win three or four of their remaining six matches to avoid relegation.

Melts take the advantage in Div. Three as Dolau B slip.

As things starts to heat up in the title race, the Monty Melts dropped a vital point last week away to the Courthouse Jury. In another excellent performance against top of the table sides following their Dolau B win the previous week, the Jury raced in to a 6-2 lead which must have left the Melts shell-shocked. They say you find out true champions when the going gets tough. Back came the Melts with an Alex Galvin 3/3 including the last frame to force a draw against Iwan Griffiths. Another 3/3 for Adam Bowen and has now won his last seven league frames.

The Lion Caerhowel continue to sweep the opposition aside. This time the Woodenspooners were the recipients of an 11-3 defeat. After Rick Penney won the first frame for the Spoons, the Lions went in to hyper drive winning the next ten with Nelly Gorman 3/3. Player of the year contender Duan Redman also recorded a 3/3 as he chases down Aron James who lost both of his frames in the match.

The Dolau B bounced back to winning ways after a couple of matches of dropped points by beating they table sharing Dolau A 10-4. Steve Tudor with a 2/2 and continuing his excellent season with Mark Powell, Lydon and Allen Birch all chipping in the a 100% performance too. Where will the Dolau A get their first point of the season from?

In the Bowling club derby between the Back Lane and Outs, it was the Backs who set off fast racing in to a 6-1 lead with a Jason Jones 2/2. The Outbowlers rallied a little wit ha Rob Bridgen and Tristan Jones double but that comeback was nipped by a Shaun Gillet 3/3 and remain comfortably in mid table in fifth.

The Midnight Bowlers will have been overjoyed with their 9-5 win over high flying Judges as Tom Griffiths 3/3 and a Stephen Ross 2/3 including the match frame in the thirteenth against Johnny Jones that put the Judges to bed. That defeat surely ends the Judges lingering hopes of the title.

The Exchange Misfits are unbeaten in two matches for the first time this season after they drew with the Buck Yourself. With the match pretty much going frame for frame all the way, Ricky Farrington put the bucks 7-6 up only for Jamie Cutler with a 3/3 to win the last frame and make sure of the point.

This weeks fixtures has a title crunch match for the Caerhowel against fourth placed Judges.

Aron James leads the POTY with 27 followed by Steve Tudor on 25. Sam Young, Jon Jacobs and Duan Redman are on 23 wins.
