Big wins for top four before this weeks Super Sunday matches

Odds on favourites to retain their crown, the Full Montys continue to annihilate their opponents. Last week an experienced Lion Cubs side didn't any answers as they fell to a 13-1 defeat. Five 7 ballers in the first nine frames set the tone of the match and they have now managed an average of ten frames per match this season and remain undefeated as they close in on yet another title. Just about keeping pace in case they falter is the Jockey A who went back to winning ways by beating The Sws 10-4 away. In what can be a tricky match especially with Mark Jones 1/3 having a superb season to date, the Jockey came back from 3-2 down to win the next six frames on the bounce, with the match effectively over when Matt Davies 2/3 beat Josh Allen in the eleventh. This week the Jockey have a tricky fixture against fourth placed Llanbadarn which will test their title credentials.

The Misfits are clinging on to third place after they beat bottom side The Herbs 12-2. Roger Lovatt 2/3 tried his best but to no avail, as Conor Jones 2/2 beat Richard Jones in the tenth for both points. From playing the bottom side, this week the Misfits take on the top team and will hope to better the draw they had in the first half of the season.

Llanbadarn warmed up for their top of the table clash with a convincing 10-4 win over mid table Teasers. Six frames on the bounce in the middle section from 2-1 down was enough for Llanbadarn, with 3/3's for Paul Robinson, Dave Morgan and Justin Bishop. Mark Davies 3/3 was the Teasers top marksman.

Cefn Coch A put up a good fight against fifth placed Talbot Tigers but eventually succumbed from 6-5 to lose 8-6. Kev Morris 2/2 held his nerve as he beat Jamie Huxley 2/3 in the last frame for both points. Earlier Mark Cress recorded another 3/3 for the Tigers and looks to have regained his first half of the season form.

The Nomads rushed in to a 3-1 and 5-2 lead away to the Jockey B but couldn't sustain that momentum. A Sedgy double took the Jockey 6-5 up before Andy Coppin 2/3 restored parity. Callum Bishop 2/3 put the home sides noses in front before Otis Powell 2/3 beat Dan Stephens in the last frame for a very hard fought two points.

Jesters on the brink of Div. Two Title

With Cefn Coch B having their bye last week, the Jesters took full advantage by beating mid table Severn St Mob 9-5. New recruit Jake Owen added to the already strong side by winning his 3/3 and will relish a fast return to the Premier league. One more win for the Jesters and a slip from their nearest rivals will be enough to be crowned champions in what has been a stella year for the jesters. Ted Pryce with a 3/3 for the SSM.

Should the unthinkable happen and the Jester lose all of their remaining matches, the Bowling Ballers will need to win all of their matches following their 10-4 win over the Desert Rats. That wasn't as easy as it sounds after they found themselves 4-2 down but Luke Williams with a 3/3 returns to form after a mid season blip to make sure both points were secured.

In the Monty Club derby match between the Jones and Co and Queues, a right tussle took place. Tom Andrew and Jamie Jones both with 2/3 for the Jones's but back came the Queues from 7-4 down to level with Neal Pratten 2/3, Llion Jones 3/3 and finally Joe Bowman-Long beating Jamie in the last frame.

The Zimmers are at their highest point of the league all season after they beat the BullnHeifer 9-5 thanks to Terry Marshall and Mitch Harris 2/3. What was impressive in the win was the old timers had the stamina to comeback from 5-3 down to win the last six frames. That lifts them to sixth with the Bulls still fighting off relegation.

After such a poor start to the season, the Outcasts have now only lost two matches since October. Last week they saw off a resolute Red Lion, eventually winning 8-6 after the scores were tied at 6-6. Aaron Thorpe was their top marksmen with a 3/3 including the match winning frame against John Bunn. That lifts them fourth from bottom and leaves the Lions rooted to the foot of the table and a mountain to climb to avoid relegation. Realistically they require four or five wins from their remaining matches to have any chance. Wayne Crump and Paul Jones both with 2/3's for the former Queens Head team.

This week, the Jockey Jesters will win the title if they beat Cefn Coch B and the Jones and Co lose to the Zimmers.

In the POTY award, Steve Jones of the Severn St Mob leads with 22 wins. Kev Lewis of the BullnHeifer, Gareth Bowen of the Desert Rats and Wayne Olden of the Jesters follow with 21 frames.

Judges condemn the Lions to defeat in Div. Three

As we are approaching the closing stages of the league, there is a genuine three way tussle for the title. Make that four if other result go the judges way after their superb 10-4 win over the Lion last week. That was only their third defeat but could well prove very costly as they slip to third in the league. Richard Clifton and Brett Clark bot h2/2 were the main protagonists for the Judges as the Lions returned home shell shocked. That defeat couldn't have come at a worse time as they now take on title rivals Dolau B who dispatched a 10-4 win over the Mid-night Bowlers. Steve Tudor with yet another 3/3, set up Mark Powell 2/2 to seal both points against Josh Ross in the tenth.

The Monty Melts moved in to top place after they laboured to a 9-5 win over bottom side Dolau A. Jon Jacobs and David Norbury both 3/3 were on song for the Melts as the Dolau managed to keep the game alive to the twelfth frame with the scores at 6-5, eventually losing the last three.

The Exchange Misfits who are second from bottom put up a good fight against fifth placed Back Lane Bowlers, only to lose the last two frames for an 8-6 defeat. Shaun Gillet 3/3 and Mark Evans 2/3 were the men to hold their nerves to see the match out for the BLB's. Earlier Jamie Cutler 3/3 had given the home side some hope.

In the battle of midway, the Buck Yourself came out 9-5 on top against the Woodenspooners. Aron James with three of those five frames however Huw Wainwright 3/3 and a Wayne Meredith 2/3 and twelfth frame win over Jean Marie-Penny was enough to seal the win.

A Richard Watson 2/2 and Adam Bowen 3/3 for the Jury was enough to beat the Outbowlers 9-5 but may not be good enough for them to finish in the top half of the division. A Thomas Smith 2/3 was the best that the Bowling Club side could offer as they remain third from bottom.

In the POTY award, Aron James leads with 29 frames. Next is Steve Tudor on 27 followed by Sam Young and Jon Jacobs on 25.
