Issue No. 1,062

Top two take the honours in the Super Sunday clashes

True to form, the Full Montys beat third placed Misfits however they were made to work harder than they would have liked. In a catalogue of errors, the Misfits will rue the chances created which eventually cost them dearly. Carl Guntrip with a 3/3 for the FM's was their main man and it was his frame that sealed the win in the twelfth before the Misfits pulled the last two frames back to make the score a respectable 8-6. That two points keeps the Full Montys top after the Jockey A beat Llanbadarn who are fourth, by an incredible 11-3. Tomos Lloyd held his nerve after losing his first two frames of the night to beat Paul Robinson in the eleventh in a largely one sided match. That leaves the Jockey two points behind the leaders but they meet on the last Sunday of the season in what could be an enthralling match.

The Herbs lifted themselves off bottom spot with a superb 8-6 win over the Teasers. Ashley Isaac and Chris Chaney with 2/3s and finally David Ashton with the same return to win the match in the thirteenth against a luckless Russ Evans 0/3.

Cefn Coch A replace them at the foot of the table after their 10-4 away defeat against the Lion Cubs who climb towards the money places. Barry Owen 3/3 and Edward Jones 2/2 both with full marks to help the lions on their way to seventh in the table. Llyr Thomas played a captains game to win the match as early as the tenth against Rob Huxley.

The Nomads climb to within two points of The Sws after beating them 10-4 at home. Rhys Butler 2/2 and back to back wins against Graham Ottaway which sealed both points for the Nomads. Rob Griffiths with a 3/3 and a 7 baller completed the full marks for the Machynlleth members of the team. The Talbot Tigers consolidated their fifth place with a 9-5 win over a Jockey B side who are unusually struggling this season. Mark Brassington with a 3/3 is a player in form and Dave Woosnam took two note worthy scalps of Phil Richards and Callum Bishop. Only Julian Marsh and Rob Wheeler both 2/3 had any joy on the Talbot table for the Jockeys who remain third from bottom. In the POTY award, Bob Pritchard leads with 28 frames followed by Ed Lewis on 27. Drew Hughes is on 26. Carl Clark and Matt Davies are on 25.

This Sunday is the Leagues Singles KO
starting at Midday in the Monty Club.

If you wish to enter, please let

Jesters close in on promotion and back to back titles.

After winning the Division Three title last season, the Jesters are effectively one win from winning the Division Two title after a hard fought draw against Cefn Coch B.

That is assuming that the Jones and Co don't catch up with the massive frame aggregate that the Jesters have built all season. It's been a stella season for Martin Williams and his side as they've only been defeated once. In fairness, Cefn Coch pushed them all of the way last week and it needed a 3/3 for Ryan Hamer including two 7 ballers with one of those being in the last frame to secure the draw. Cefn Coch B for their part have pushed them all season and will hope to follow them in to the Premiership.

Jamie Jones for the Jones and Co played his part in the 8-6 win over the Zimmers. Alan Jones recovered from his parental duties to play and win his first two frames, only then to be 7 balled by his pool guru Johnny Jerman. Owain Jones made sure of the win when he beat league stalwart Mitch Harris in the penultimate frame before Kev Mitchell 3/3 pulled the last frame back for the Zimmers. The Monty Queues remain an outside chance of promotion after they beat the Severn St Mob 9-5 at home. Owain Wilding with a 3/3 was the top Queue with his frame against Alec Scarborough 0/3 being the match clincher. That win lifts them to within of the Ballers who had their bye. Maybe the league need to send drug testers around to the Outcasts matches as they won again 8-6. That's six matches undefeated after a terrible first half of the season. Racing in to a 5-0 lead away to the BullnHeifer, and then on to 7-2 before the Bulls woke up with four frames on the bounce. That left Aaron Thorpe 2/2 to finally seal both points in the last frame and life his side to fourth from bottom. Rich Davies and Phil Lewis both 2/3 for the Bulls.

The Red Lion at the foot of the table showed a true fighting spirit as they come back from 7-3 down to win the last four frames and tie their match against the Desert Rats. John Bunn for the Lions beating POTY contender Gareth Bowen 2/3 in the last frame. That point more or less gives the Rats survival from the dreaded drop in to Division Three.

In the POTY award, Gareth Bowen leads with 23 wins followed by Steve Jones and Wayne Olden on 22. Kev Lewis is on 21.

Lions take advantage as Melts drop point at top of Div. Three

It all started off well for the Dolau B playing away at the Lion Caerhowel. Winning four on the bounce only got the Lions roaring in to action and from there on in, it was the Lions who took nine of the remaining ten frames to close within a point of the leaders with a game in hand. Duan Redman with a 2/3 sealed the superb win over their title rivals after Charlie Weaver stopped the rot in the first session.

That two points must have hurt the Monty Melts who may have started to feel the pressure at the top. They came away from the Midnight Bowlers with a hard earned point after the Bowlers went 7-5 up with Anthony Price and Josh Ross both 2/3 being the main men. Alex Galvin and finally Michael Goodwin made sure of what could be a crucial point when they won the last two frames for the Melts who face the Lions in two weeks time in what is the crunch game of the season.

Any lingering hope for the Judges to win the title has all but ended after they drew with mid table Woodenspooners. Aron James continues chipping in with 3/3's for the Spooners but Sam Young for the Judges with a 2/3 made sure of parity in the last frame, beating James Bevan.

The Back Lane Bowlers enjoyed their trip to Caersws and returned 9-5 victors over Buck Yourself. Fluff Richards with a 2/3, Shaun Gillet 2/2 and finally Jacob Jones 3/3 were the difference between the sides as both sides remain in the hunt for the prize money places. David Meredith with a 2/3 was the top Buck.

The Jury had no problem in dispatching the Misfits and claiming an 11-3 win in the process. Richard Watson 3/3 and Iwan Griffiths 2/2 were the main protagonists for the Jury who sit mid table.

Oliver Hall with a 3/3 for the Outbowlers wishes he could play against the Dolau A every week as he lead his side to an 11-3 victory. Howard Clements with a 2/2 was the other 100% man as they put an end to their nine match losing streak.

They now have a derby match to look forward to in a few weeks against the Midnighters. Ian Bywater with a 2/3 was the Dolau A's best performer as they remain pointless so far this season. Aron James leads the POTY award with 31 wins followed by Steve Tudor on 28. Jon Jacobs is on 27 with Sam Young on 26.
