Jockey A cling on to title hope after narrow win against Misfits

In an evenly fought contest, Aled Lloyd with a 3/3 for the Jockey A proved to be the difference against a Misfits side who continue to fall just short against the leagues top two teams. Conor Jones recorded a 2/2 back in his old stomping ground but it was his old colleague Tomos Lloyd 2/3 who beat Neil Powell in the eleventh for a hard fought 8-6 win and two points to keep his side just about in the title race. To win that, they will need to beat the Full Montys in the last match of the season and do better than them in their two remaining matches due to the aggregate frame difference.

That frame difference was added to after the Full Montys beat the Teasers 11-3 with another three 7 ballers. Drew Hughes racked up another one to make his collection thirteen for the season and it was Glyn Davies who continues to improve like a good wine in his aging years who took the scalp of Ed Lewis for the match frame in the tenth. That keeps them four points ahead having played a match more and eighteen frames advantage.

The lion Cubs are up to fifth after an excellent 10-4 home win against The Sws. The Sws lead 4-3 at the half way stage but the second half was dominated by the Lions who won all seven with Llyr Thomas 2/2 Nigel Owen 3/3 and Mark Woosnam 3/3 being the Lion top performers.

If the rumours of the Jockey B folding next season are true, then maybe only one team could get relegated. If so, Cefn Coch A helped their survival bid with a credible draw against them with Luke Mumford 3/3 making a rare home fixture. Callum Bishop returned the same score for the Jockey, who also benefitted from a 2/2 Rob Wheeler double. That point leaves Cefn Coch on the same six points as The Herbs with both having three matches to play so all to play for, for both of them. Whether one or two sides are relegated will be ratified at the Summer's AGM.

The Herbs put in a mini comeback after going 7-2 behind to the Nomads. Back they came with a 3/3 for Ashley Isaac but that was matched by the same for Alan Walker and Rhys Butler for the Nomads. The match finally ending 9-5 to the Monty side.

Jesters have one hand on the title after defeating Red Lion in Div. Two Barring a catastrophic turn of defeats for the Jockey Jesters and coupled with huge wins for the Jones and Co, the Division Two title will safely be in their hands next month following an 11-3 win over the league strugglers Red Lion. It's been virtually plain sailing for Ryan Hamer and his side who will have back to back titles. Wayne Olden with a 2/2 including the match frame as he continues to be in the hunt for the POTY award too. As for the Red Lion, they can't finish outside of the bottom two and will have to see what beholds them at the AGM. The Jones and Co who were also promoted last season are favourites to finish runners up after they beat the Desert Rats 9-5. The Rats started off well going in to a 4-2 lead but back came the Jones's with 3/3s for Jamie Jones and Rhys Jones. That left Linda Andrew to beat Josh Righelato for both points as they remain two points ahead of third place.

On paper, what was a tricky fixture against the Severn St Mob was anything but for the Bowling Ballers who cruised to a 10-4 win. Richard Morgan with a 2/3 and the match frame after Rhys Bell chipped in with a 3/3 for the Ballers. That put the Ballers in third place after Cefn Coch B dropped a point after they drew away to the Monty Queues. With both teams in the top half of the division all season, it was always going to be a hard match to predict but it required a 2/3 and last frame win for Owain Wilding against Robbie James to secure a point after the villagers had lead 7-5. Tudor Jones with a 3/3 was the nights best performer. Earlier in the season when the Zimmers met the Outcasts, both sides were labouring in the bottom spots. A tense draw played out but this time with safety secured for both, an equally tight match resulted in a narrow 8-6 win for the "Oldies". Alan Davies with his once a year 3/3 was his sides hero after he beat his fellow cycle enthusiast Paul Jones. Both sides deserve a huge amount of praise for climbing out of the early season slumber to prevail the dreaded drop.

In the POTY award, Gareth Bowen of the Desert Rats leads with 27 wins. Wayne Olden of the Jesters is next with 25 followed Jamie Jones of the Jones and Co with 23 frames.

Dolau A take their first point of the season in Div Three.

Huge congratulations go to the Dolau A side who sit rock bottom of the table with zero points but last week excelled themselves by taking a very creditable draw against fifth placed Back Lane Bowlers. It's fair to say they haven't been at the races this season as they have a frame difference of minus 146 with their opponents recording double digit frames in thirteen of the twenty matches however Beverley Lewis has rallied her troops and they can now look forward to the remaining two fixtures against the Jury and Buck Yourself. Well done to the Dolau A.

At the other end of the table, the Melts are closing in on being promoted as champions after they beat the Woodenspooners 9-5. Michael Goodwin, Charlie Martin and David Norbury all with 2/2 were the top Melts with Jon Jacobs taking the all important eighth frame. That puts them three points ahead but the Lion Caerhowel do have a game in hand.

Nerves me have been frayed at the Lion after they laboured to an 8-6 win over lowly Outbowlers. Arnold Tanner made a welcome return to the side and chipped in with a 2/3 with Duan Redman recording the same which included the match frame against Oliver Hall before the Out's rallied to win the last two frames to make the score line respectable.

Third met Fourth when the Judges hosted the Dolau B who were long time leaders of the league this season. With the match as expected evenly poised at 5-5, the Judges then condemned the visitors to four straight defeats to win 9-5 with Amy Jones 3/3 and Johnny Jones 2/3 sealing an excellent victory. Both sides will now look to see the season through on a high before mounting another title challenge next season.

The mid table clash between the Jury and Buck Yourself ended with a 9-5 win for the visiting Jury with Tom's Young and Owen and Adam Bowen helping themselves to 3/3's. Both sides remain in contention for the end of season league placings cash prizes.

The match between the Midnight Bowlers and Misfits is to be re-arranged.

Aron James leads the POTY award with 34 frames followed by Steve Tudor on 31.

Jon Jacobs is 2 frames further behind on 29. All three players have two matches remaining.

In this weeks matches, the Lion Caerhowel will hope that the Judges can take a point or two off the Monty Melts whilst they look to have an easier fixture away to the Misfits. Nothing can be taken for granted at this stage of the season though.
