Jockey B stun Full Montys to give Jockey A title hope

If they are to leave the league at the end of the season as is rumoured, then the Jockey B have played their part in throwing the title wide open. All ready this season they have beaten the Jockey A 8-6 and went even better last week by beating the long time title favourites Full Montys 10-4. After 7 balling Sedgy to bring the score back to 2-1, Glyn Davies then had to sit out the rest of the night, and see the scoreline move on to 5-2. Callum Bishop then took notable wins against Drew Hughes and Mike Williams with Sedgy composing himself to beat Carl Guntrip to see the scores move on to 6-3. Up stepped Otis Powell to play back to back frames against Drew and then Carl, beating both for an excellent win.

That will have been cheered loudly by the Jockey A who cantered to an 13-1 win over the Teasers. Matt Davies with a 3/3 and the frame winner versus Nigel Roberts with Matt's brother Mark being the only Teaser to win a frame.

On Friday night, the Jockey A played their match in hand and beat The Herbs 13-1 to set up an enthralling climax to our season this Sunday, as the top two meet. If only this match could be live streamed.

Llanbadarn are in pole position to finish third in their return to the league after they demolished the Cubs 13-1. Given the experience of the Cubs, that was a surprise scoreline, with Barry Owen only winning the first frame for the Cubs in the twelfth. That win means Llanbadarn only need a draw against Cefn Coch A, given their frame aggregate over the Misfits.

Five frames in a row after they went 2-0 down to the Nomads, gave the Misfits the momentum to kick on. Frames were then shared until lee Harris completed his 3/3 and finally Carl Williams beat birthday boy Andy Coppin for the match. Rhys Butler of the Nomads was in good form with a 3/3 and two 7 ballers.

Climbing to seventh in the league is The Sws after they had little trouble against Cefn Coch, finishing with an 11-3 win. It's been a superb season for Mark Jones and he capped that with a 3/3 and a 7 baller in the match frame against Rich Williams.

Jesters win back to back titles after defeating BullnHeifer in Div Two

The Jockey Jesters have put in a real shift this season after their Third Division title last year. Needing one win from their remaining two matches, they achieved that at the first time of asking although they found themselves 3-1 down to the Bulls before Wayne Olden steadied the ship with the first of his 3/3. It was his third frame win in the thirteenth that sealed the title frame against Phil Lewis and they can now enjoy the Summer and look forward to the Premiership next season. Jake Owen with a 2/2 was the other 100% performer for the Jesters with Kev Lewis 3/3 for the Bulls. The battle for the runners up spot is on between the Jones and Co and Cefn Coch B. both are locked on 25 points with the Jones's having a match in hand. Tudor Jones 3/3 and Clive Langford 2/3 continue to perform well for the villagers who needed Tudor's last frame win over Barry Shafe to seal both points in a tight match versus the Bowling Ballers, eventually winning 8-6. Rhys Bell was the Ballers top player with a 3/3. The Ballers who sit fourth now require the Jones's and Cefn Coch to lose their remaining fixtures to stand any chance of a quick return to the top division. The Outcasts are a completely different team since the turn of the year and will give any team a run for their money as the Queues found out. With the Queues always in the top half of the division, they only need a little more consistency to be able to put in a title push but the Outcasts took the to 6-6. Up stepped Owain Wilding 2/3 and finally Neal Pratten 2/3 to win both of the last two frames for the Monty outfit. The Outcasts have now been involved in seven 8-6 matches this season but on the wrong side last week. The Zimmers are up to sixth and their highest place this season after they defeated the Desert Rats 8-6 thanks to a Mitchy Harris last frame win over Anthony Wilson. Kev Mitchell with a 2/3 and a recent return of form (11 from his last 14), proving his class. Terry Marshall with a 2/2 for an improving Zimmers who have won five from the last six. The Severn St Mob are back to winning was after nine matches, beating the Red Lion 9-5. Winning eight from the last nine, the Sportsman side are still hovering mid table after their early season promising start. Steve Jones with the winning match frame, sandwiched between 7 ballers from Ted Pryce 2/2 and Tudor Lloyd Kerry 1/2.

Monty Melts take Division Three title after beating Judges.

With an emphatic 11-3 win over the Courthouse Judges, the Monty Melts have claimed the division three title and can look forward to their promotion party. Taking the first five frames, the match wasn't really in doubt and they finished it off how they started by taking the last five with Jon Jacobs 3/3 taking the title winning frame against Sam Young. The Judges can be proud of their season and will look to have a little more consistency next season which would put them in title contention.

The Lion Caerhowel have to settle for the runners up spot after they beat the Misfits 10-4. Jed Williams with a 2/2 and Charlie Weaver with a 2/3 including the match frame versus Andy Glyn in the eleventh.

The divisions long time early pace setters Dolau B ended the season with a 10-4 win over Buck Yourself with Mark Powell 2/2 and a 7 baller ending the league in fine form. If results go against them this week, they may even finish fifth which would be their lowest all season.

In the Bowling Club derby between the Back Lane Bowlers and Midnighters, the Back Laners came out on top with a narrow 9-5 win. Jacob Jones with a 3/3 sealed the match against Michael Ross as late as the thirteenth frame. Tom Griffiths and Stephen Ross with a 2/3 for the Midnighters .

The Jury carried out an 11-3 sentence over bottom side Dolau A last week with Tom Owen 3/3 continuing his fine season, sitting currently on a 65% win rate. The same 33/ return for his team mate Tom Young and they will end the season in a respectable sixth place.

A 9-5 win for the Woodenspooners over the Outbowlers. In a close match with never more than a couple of frames in it, it wasn't until the Spoons lead 6-5 that they kicked on to win the remaining three frames. Jean Marie-Penny beating Rob Bridgen in the thirteenth to seal both points.

In the POTY award, Aron James has won with his current 36 frames. Steve Tudor and Jon Jacobs follow with 32 each. Charlie Martin is on 30 frames,
