Lions tame the Tigers as The Sws comeback to spoil Jesters night

The Lion Cubs are having a season to forget up until now but last showed how capable they are by holding the high flying Tigers to a draw. The Tigers started well enough by going in to a 3-0 lead but that was pegged back by a Mark Woosnam and Nigel Owen 2/3. mark Brassington maintained his excellent season with a 2/3 and put the Tigers on the hill at 7-4 only for John Roberts to win the last frame and restore parity. The Cubs will need more of that level when they play the Jockey A this week.

The Jockey Jesters threw away a 7-3 lead to The Sws who fought back to draw with an Ashley Isaac 2/3, Carl Pryce 3/3 and finally Stafford beat Wayne Olden in the last frame. That point keeps The Sws mid table and relatively safe from a relegation dog fight.

The Nomads gave a good account for themselves but just fell short, narrowly losing 8-6 to title favourites Full Montys. The result may have been different if the Nomads hadn't given them a 5-0 head start. Back they come to win six of the last nine frames but it was a mountain to climb. Carl Guntrip with a 3/3 and the match frame against Rocket in the twelfth before the Nomads won the last two frames to make the scoreline respectable.

The Jockey A also raced in to a 5-0 lead against the Teasers. Russ Evans then weighed in with two 7 ballers for a 2/3 before the ever reliable Aled Lloyd 3/3 sealed the win in the eleventh frame against Phil Jones. Callum Bishop with a 2/2 for the Jockey as they remain three points behind the leaders but do have a match in hand.

Newbees relentless in Div. Two Title Pursuit

The Jockey Newbees bandwagon keeps on rolling after last weeks 10-4 win over a super experienced Zimmers side. Kev Mitchell stopped the rot after the Newbees went in to a 4-0 lead but Barry Bennett wrapped an early night up when he beat Alan Davies in the tenth frame before he went on to complete a 3/3. They are now six points ahead of the chasing pack.

Two of the chasing teams, Cefn Coch B and the Bowling Ballers played out a 7-7 draw which did neither much use. After Cefn Coch went in to a 5-2 lead, the Ballers fought themselves back in to the match with Richard Morgan 2/3 putting them on the brink of a victory, only for Rob Francis 3/3 to win the last frame for a valuable point.

The Desert rats consolidated their league position with a 9-5 win over bottom placed Severn St Mob. The tie was a lot harder than the score-line suggests as the rats were held to a 6-5 lead, eventually winning the last three frames. Callum Lovell being the victor over Ellis Davies for both points. Andy Meek with a 2/2 for the Rats.

An excellent 11-3 win for the Queues over the Younguns including a run of seven frames on the bounce when they were 4-3 up. Nick Lewis being the hero for his team with a 2/3 and the match frame against Rhys Jones in the eleventh. Both teams remain mid table.

The Outcasts are in freefall after they lost again to the Melts 8-6. Stephen Penny 2/2 completed the win in the eleventh before the Outcasts won the last three frames to make the score more respectable. Wayne Crump 3/3 for them.

Bulls and Bucks breakaway in Div. Three

It looks to be a two horse race now for the title after the Red Lion could only draw against lowly Treacles. It was an excellent result for the Treacles who had Steve Tudor and Lydon Birch both 2/3 to thank for. The Lions needed Lee Cruse 2/2 to win the last frame to salvage a point against Mark Powell but that may not be enough as the top two sides won against the bottom two.

The Buck Yourself needed the last two frames of the night against the Brexit Bowlers to run out 9-5 with Huw Wainwright 3/3 and finally Wayne Meredith 2/3 being the difference. Stephen Ross 2/3 for the Brexits. The Buck remain one point ahead and a match in hand over the Bullnheifer after the Bulls trounced the Woodenspooners 12-2.

Richard Davies 3/3 for the Bullnheifer and the match frame as they remain in hot pursuit of the Buck for the title. The Woodenspooners didn't do themselves any favours with the scoreline and are eight frames behind the Brexits in the fight to stay off the bottom of our league.

In the battle of pride in the Courthouse, the Judges stay a few points ahead of their rivals Jury after the Judges beat the Back lane Bowlers 9-5. Oli Goodwin 2/3 holding his nerve to beat Sam Woosnam in the eleventh. Johnny Jones with a 3/3 for the Judges.

The Jury beat the Outbowlers 10-4 with Richard Watson 2/3 beating Joe Tudor for both points in the eleventh. Iwan Griffiths with a 3/3 for the Jury who stay mid table.

Make a note that Finals Day is Sunday April 19th.
