The Sws give Full Montys a Scare In the Premier League

Having won only two matches all season, The Sws looked to be easy prey for the Full Montys but they gave a great account of themselves having gone 7-1 down. Many would have totally capitulated but the villagers showed steel to claw themselves back in to the match with Josh Allen and Carl Pryce both 2/3. that brought the score back to 7-5 down only for the enigmatic drew to stop the rot and beat Stafford in the penultimate frame. The match ending 8-6 to the champions elect.

The Lion Cubs looked to be on the brink of a much needed victory at 6-2 up against the Nomads but Rocket Griffiths and Rhys Butler both completed their 3/3s with Ian Coppin adding a frame to lead 7-6 in a dramatic turn around. Llyr Thomas then beat Andy Coppin as they had to settle for a point which in the end will feel like a point lost for the Cubs.

The Jesters who are fighting hard to stay in the Premiership also let a point slip with a draw against the Teasers. From 6-4 down, the Jesters then won the next three frames only to find Russ Evans in top form, ending the night with a 3/3 and giving his Teasers a point.

Six 7 ballers in a high performance match for the Misfits against the Caerhowel Tigers as the match also ended with a draw. Carl Hanson with two of those 7 ballers and Dan Richards with another to put the Misfits 7-4 up but Scott Clifford and Mark Brassington 2/3 and finally Woozy Woosnam sealing the draw in style with a 7 baller against Carl Williams.

Newbees all but end Ballers title challenge in Div. Two

The Jockey Newbees took a massive step to winning the title after beating one of their rivals 10-4. Gareth McMurdo with a 2/3 for the Bowling Ballers but the Newbees were just too strong, winning all three sessions. Rich Pittman with a 3/3 and match winning frame performance against Rhys Bell.

Just about keeping pace with them are Cefn Coch B who also won 10-4 against the Younguns. Racing in to a 6-0 lead, Cefn Coch showed no mercy and with the experienced Clive Langford on form with a 3/3, they will now fancy their chances of promotion.

The outcasts are in a real slump and last week fell 8-6 to the Zimmers who are on a roll. Kev Mitchell 3/3 showing his experience to close the match out against Phil Fage. Wayne Crump with a 3/3 for the Bowling Club side who are now in real trouble of relegation.

At 7-5 up, the Melts looked to be getting both points in their derby against the Rats but Gareth Bowen 3/3 and Andy Meek 2/2 had other ideas. Charlie Martina and Jon Jacobs both 2/2 had det the Melts on the way earlier in the match and although the Melts sit mid table, they are only two points above the relegation zone.

Also sitting mid table but just above the drop zone, the Lions met the Queues and played out a 7-7 draw. Owain Wilding 2/3 was the Queues hero as he salvaged a point against Duan Redman in the last frame.

Llion Jones with a 3/3 for the Queues as he seeks players for a marathon day on March 20-21st to raise funds for the upcoming Welsh Tour. The Queues will be the happier with a draw after they found themselves 5-1 down.

Outbowlers blow title wide open In Div. Three

Last week, Buck Yourself may have suffered the title jitters as they slumped to an 8-6 defeat to lowly Outbowlers. The 4-1 session in the second turned around the 3-2 deficit from the first and Oliver Hall put the Bowling Club side on the brink by beating Jake Meredith in the twelfth. The win was completed in the next frame when “no name” 2/2 took their team over the win line for an excellent two points.

The Bullnheifer had their match versus the Jury postponed but will no doubt have enjoyed that result coming in.

The Back Lane Bowlers also capitalised when they beat the Red Lion 8-6 with Jacob Jones 3/3 winning the last frame against Dwain Evans.

That sets up a Super Sunday this week when all of the top four sides play each other in what could be a make or break week for some of them.

The Monty Treacles will have enjoyed their nights work with an 11-3 win over bottom placed Woodenspooners. Mark Powell with a 2/2 and the match winning frame in the tenth with only James Bevan 2/3 putting in any sort of performance for the struggling Sportsman side.

Mid table placed Exchange left it late to finish off the Brexit Bowlers, having to win the last three frames for a 9-5 win. The Brexits having won three of the first four frames, then lost five of the next six with Archie Jones and Joanne both 2/3 putting in resolute performances. The Exchange had Jimi Jalmon 3/3 to thank for and then finally Ryan Humphreys 2/2 for sealing the two points. No name provided also with a 3/3 for the Exchange.
