Full Montys DISH out lesson to Jockey A in Premiership

Although not a fatal blow to the Jockey A's hopes of retaining their title, this match could well be decisive given the performance of the Full Montys in dispatching the away side. Three 7 ballers in a row for Mike, Drew and Bob set the tone before Matt Davies replied in kind, 7 balling Glyn. Daf Rowlands then missed the black for what would have been another 7 baller which let Mark Davies in to steel that frame and narrow the gap to 3-2. Mike then 7 balled Tomos in the sixth frame to keep up the super high standard. The second session belonged to the Jockey as they levelled 5-5. unfortunately for them, that only sparked the Montys in to life again as they took all the remaining frames for a superb 9-5 win. Daf beating Steve Davies in the thirteenth frame to cap an excellent performance. Both teams continue to set the high standard in the league and long may it continue.

The Nomads have had a good start to their campaign and recorded their third win on the bounce against the Jesters, beating them 10-4. Ian Coppin with a 2/2 and the match frame against Ken Llewellyn after Alan Walker 2/2 and Rhys Butler 2/3 kept up their personal good starts to the season.

The Misfits had to dig deep to see off The Sws who were tied at 5-5. Ashley Isaac took the notable scalp of Mark Crees twice before the returning Neil Powell 3/3 settled the home sides nerves. Carl Williams also with a 3/3 and a 7 baller beat Ashley to claim both points for his side as they try to keep pace at the top of the table.

A dominant display by the Cubs who saw off the Dragons 11-3 with Mark Woosnam and John Roberts both 3/3 in good form. Nigel Owen also with a 2/2 for the Cubs as the Dragons are yet to get going as they continue the search for their first point and they also have their second bye in four weeks this Sunday. The Cubs can look forward to taking on the Tigers this Sunday in the battle of the wild cats.

After last weeks excellent win over the Misfits, the Tigers took on the Teasers. With the frames alternating to the ninth and the scoreline 5-4 to the Tigers, Danny Francis 3/3 and Ed Lewis 3/3 set up Russ Evans 2/3 to win the last frame against Kev Morris for a very hard fought win. Mark Brassington 2/3 was the top Tiger on the night.

In the divisional stats, all on 5/6 are Mike Williams, Mark Woosnam, Alan Walker, Carl Williams and Drew Hughes

Ballers and Outcasts start in Division Two

Two of the fancied teams at the start of the season have maintained their 100% record with the Bowling Ballers seeing off the Monty Queues 9-5. Luke Williams 3/3 has hit the ground running early season for the Ballers who also had Richard Morgan with a 3/3. That win keeps them top on aggregate after the Outcasts struggled to defeat the Younguns 8-6. With the score locked at 5-5 after Reino De Klerk and Owain Jones both 2/2 in the first two sessions, the Outcasts moved up a gear in the last session. Paul Jones 2/3, Aaron Thorpe 2/2, Wayne Crump 3/3 including two 7 ballers and finally Darren Robertson who held his nerve against Owain to seal both points.

The Monty Melts also required a last frame win against the Severn St Mob by virtue of Mark Hamer beating Ted Pryce. The Melts also had a 3/3 for Charlie Martin to thank for. Tudor Lloyd Kerry 3/3 continues to be the Sportsman's talisman. That lifts the Mob above Cefn Coch B as they had their bye week.

The Zimmers are up and running with their first points of the season with Kev Mitchell 3/3 in top form. Terry Marshall for the Zimmers with a 2/3 which set up Huw Roberts to beat Jack Shepherd in the last frame for an 8-6 win and left the Lion Caerhowel disappointed.

An extremely hard fought match between a strengthened Desert Rats and the Jockey Newbees took place last week. The experience of Robbie Hartshorn and Barry Bennett both ending with 2/3s gave the Newbees a narrow 6-4 lead going in to the last session. Laura Jones then pulled one back for the away side with Anthony Wilson getting the score back to 7-6 down and set up Callum Lovell for the draw however Gary Gindrat of the Newbees had other ideas. He held his nerve to complete his 3/3 and get his team up and running after their first match defeat.

This weeks match to watch out for is the clash between the Bowling Ballers and Cefn Coch B with both sides narrowly missing out on promotion last season.

Who will take the early season honours?

In the divisional stats, Aaron Thorp, Richard Morgan and Charlie Martin all lead with 5/6. Ten players are on four wins.

The Jury condemn the Judges to a defeat in Div. Three

In the Courthouse derby match, the Judges had no answer to the early onslaught inflicted on them by the Jury. After losing the first six matches on the bounce the Judges steadied the ship a little when Johnny Jones, Brett Clark and Rich Clifton won the next three but was too little too late as Adam Bowen 2/3 and Tom Young 2/2 got the Jury over the line for an excellent 9-5.

The top versus bottom match between the Back Lane Bowlers and the Brexits ended 10-4 to the Bowlers with their Jacob Jones 3/3 leading the way. Shaun Gillet with a 2/3 and the match frame in the eleventh against Joanna Davies. Stephen Ross winning two of the four frames for the Brexits. The Back Laners share top spot with the Buck Yourself who had an almighty battle with fourth placed Exchange eventually winning 8-6 with Huw Wainwright 3/3 seeing off Ryan Humphreys in the last frame. Ricky Farrington 2/3 had put the Caersws side on the hill at 7-4 but back came the Exchange with wins for Harry Gannon 2/3 and Huw Humphreys also 2/3. This division could easily end up with the title going to any of four or five sides if a team can put a consistent run together.

The Outbowlers climbed above the Treacles after they defeated them 8-6 in the Monty Club. The Treacles started off brightly going in to a 3-1 lead but back came the Outs who fielded nine players on the night. Mark Powells 3/3 was to no avail for the Treacles as his side caved in, losing five of the last six frames. Stuart Armstrong 2/2 beat the David “Tarzan” Jarman in the last frame to seal the points.

Finally the Red Lion are up to third after their 10-4 away win at the BullnHeifer. Graham Lewis with a 3/3 but it was the 2/3 for Daryl Haynes who finished the contest after he beat Kev Lewis in the twelfth.

In the divisional stats, Huw Wainwright from Buck Yourself leads with 6 frames, followed by Kev Lewis, Jacob Jones and Huw Humphrys on 5. There are twelve players with 4 wins.
