TIGERS TAME THE CUBS IN PREMIER LEAGUE

In the battle of the big cats, it was the Caerhowel Tigers who were fast out of the blocks racing in to a 6-1 lead. Both Shaun James and Dave Woosnam were in top form with 3/3s for the Tigers, with Chris White finishing the match off with a 7 baller against Mark Woosnam as early as the tenth frame which finally ended 10-4. That defeat will be disappointing for the Lion Cubs after they hammered the Dragons the week earlier and have a daunting match against the Misfits this week.

The Full Montys continue to rack up their aggregate in frames after they beat the Nomads 11-3. Strangely no 7 ballers this week for them but still clinical with Carl Guntrip 3/3 their top scorer. Alan Walker 2/3 can be pleased with his nights return and makes it 8/10 so far this season. Drew beat Andy Coppin in the tenth to finish the tie, with Andy getting his own back in the last frame. Next up for the Full Montys is the Dragons who have already had two byes this season.

Bouncing back after their defeat by the Full Montys the previous week, the Jockey A got back to winning ways in their match against the Teasers. New signing Callum Bishop 3/3 which matched Matt Davies's return after the Teasers did well to get to 4-4 before the Jockey took the last six frames. Strangely Steve Davies and Aled Lloyd who have played a huge part in the Jockey's success over the recent years, only played three frames between them.

The Jockey Jesters and The Sws claimed their first point of the campaign, having played out a draw. Jake Owen 3/3 for the Jesters helped their cause and set up Martin Cheggs Williams to beat Carl Pryce 2/3 in the last frame after the Sws had lead 7-6 thanks to a 7 baller for Josh Allen against Will Beddoes. Earlier Stafford Jones 2/3 took the notable win against Ryan Hamer (twice). That point will be welcomed by The Sws as they have their bye week. The Jesters can now look forward to playing at home against the Tigers this week

This weeks top fixture has the Jockey A away to the Nomads.

At the top of the stats in the Premier league are Alan Walker, Mike Williams and Drew Hughes who are all on 7 wins. Carl Guntrip, Matt Davies and Mark Woosnam follow on 6 wins. Bob Pritchard, Glyn Davies, Carl Williams and Mark Brassington are next with 5 frames.

Deadline for the Threesomes Cup entry has been extended but must be in tonight.

Outcasts go top as Ballers draw in Div. Two

The Outcasts made it four wins on the bounce after they defeated the Monty Melts 10-4 away. Paul Jones 3/3 started the ball rolling but then the Melts won the next three. That must have been when they melted though as the Out's won the next seven frames and capping his night off in style, Paul beat Michael Goodwin for the match frame.

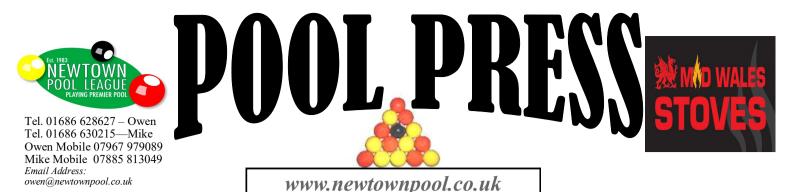

The Bowling Ballers and Cefn Coch B played out a draw in a very tough match between the divisions top sides. Clive Langford 3/3 was up for the fight but a Luke Williams 2/3 put the Ballers on the hill at 7-6. Having lost his first two frames, Cefn Coch kept faith with Rob Davies and he didn't disappoint a third time, beating Rhys Bell in the last frame to make it honours even.

A tight match ensued between the Zimmers and the divisions new side Jockey Newbees. Terry Marshall with a 3/3 was in top form for the Zimmers as he brought his team back to 6-5 down however Matt Hartshorn 3/3 put his side on the hill at 7-5 and set up captain Barry Bennett who beat Kev Mitchell who had an unusual off night. The final scoreline being 8-6 to the Newbees who gained their second win of the season.

The Desert Rats are up to third after their 8-6 win against the Severn St Mob. The Rats must have hit the complacency button after they lead 4-0 as that was quickly brought back to 4-4. Anthony Wilson 3/3 moved his side on to 7-6, setting up Laura Jones to complete her 3/3 in the last frame against Tudor Lloyd Kerry.

The Monty Queues are still waiting for their first point of the season after they fell to a 10-4 defeat to the Younguns. They must have felt good with the scores locked at 4-4 but then maybe fell asleep as the Younguns ran out six frames on the bounce. Casey Pritchard and Rhys Jones both with 3/3s with only Owain Wilding 2/3 seemingly on form for the Oueues.

In the divisional stats, Aaron Thorpe and Richard Morgan are tied with 7 frames. Fourteen players follow with 5 frames. This division is a tough one to call for the promotional places and the player of the year award.

Buck Yourself beat Brexits to go top in Div. Three

You get the sense that the Buck Yourself side are in the mood for a real promotion push this season. Gareth Owen with a 3/3 is their form layer so far this season as they raced in to a 5-1 lead. From there on in, the Brexit Bowlers shared every other frame to move the score to 7-4 but the Buck were in no mood to share the points and took the last three frames and move them two points ahead at the top whilst the Brexits still search for their first point.

An excellent 8-6 win for the Judges who beat the Back Lane Bowlers and had Jon Edwards 3/3 to thank for. It was his last frame win over Mark Evans. Brett Clark 2/3 set up his side in the eleventh frame to put the scoreline at 7-4 but a mini comeback by Russ Powell 2/3 and Sam Woosnam 2/2 to bring the score to 7-6 was halted in the last frame.

The Outbowlers are keeping up with the early season pace with an 8-6 win over the Jury. Joe Tudor and Matt Pelling both 2/2 were the key contributors for the Out's, with Joe's frame against Tom Owen being the points clincher. The Jury then went on to win the last three frames with Tom Young 3/3 winning half of his sides six frames. The Outbowlers now have a tough fixture this week against the Red Lion who had their match against the Monty Treacles called off at the last minute and will be rearranged soon.

The BullnHeifer are in the chasing pack with a 9-5 away win at the Wooden-spooners. Only James Bevan and Aron James won for the Spoons in the first ten frames with the Bulls firing on all cylinders. Kev Gittins with a 3/3 including the match frame against Rick Penny for an early nights work. The Spoons did then win three of the last four frames to make the scoreline a little more respectable. A daunting task this week for the Spoons as they play top side Buck away. The top fixture to watch this week will be the Red Lion versus the Outbowlers which is sure to be keenly fought.

Kev Lewis, Jacob Jones and Huw Wainwright are all tied on 7 frames in the divisional stats. Tom Young, Rich Watson and Gareth Owen follow with 6 frames.
