Full Monty`s Crowned Premier League Champions

In a stella season and winning 15/17 matches so far, last week the Full Monty`s were officially crowned league champions after they beat the Lion Cubs 10-4. After going 2-0 down, Jake Ottaway`s side bounced back in true champions style by winning the next nine frames with Glyn Davies beating Nigel Owen for the match points. Huge congratulations to them with a few of their side winning countless titles over the years. That defeat leaves the Lion Cubs facing relegation as they require two wins to even stand an outside chance of retaining Premiership status.

The Tigers who played their match against the Dragons a week early, find themselves third in the league after an 8-6 win. From 6-5 down, the Tigers then came up trumps with wins for Kev Morris, Dave Woosnam and finally Mark Brassington.

The Monty Teasers are aiming for a top half of the league finish after they saw off The Sws 10-4 with Russ Evans 2/3 sealing the tie as early as the tenth frame with a win over Ashley Isaac. The Sws take on the Tigers this week and will look to be putting a few more points on the board to ease their relegation fears. The Monty Misfits v Nomads match was postponed.

Newbees beat rivals and have one hand on Div. Two title

The Jockey Newbees took a giant step to the title last week when they beat their nearest rivals Cefn Coch 9-5. That leaves them requiring just one more point from three matches to mathematically be sure. Steve Sherlock's win over Clive Langford in the thirteenth frame made sure of the spoils with Sedgy having a night to remember with a 2/2 and two 7 ballers. As for Cefn Coch, one more point should be just enough for them to cling on to runners up spot after the Desert Rats dropped a point with a draw to the Zimmers. Jamie Jones with a 3/3 for the Rats with Josh Righelato putting them 7-6 up only for Kevin Mitchell to complete his 2/2 in the last frame to tie the match up.

The Outcasts had an excellent 8-6 win over the Bowling Ballers who look to have missed out on a promotion place. Paul Jones with a 3/3 was back on form and it was his last frame win over Gareth McMurdo that sealed both points. Wayne Crump also with a 3/3 in the derby match with Richard Morgan 2/3 the only winner for the Ballers in the last seven frames. The Younguns have been in good form of late and last week beat the Caerhowel Lions 10-4 with Owain and Rhys Jones both 3/3 being the star men for the youngsters. That two points lifts them up to fifth in the league and leaves the lions requiring a few more points to avoid relegation. Duan Redman with a 2/3 for the Lions was their best effort. The Severn St Mob put up an excellent fight against mid table Queues and after going 6-1 down, managed to get themselves back to 6-6 only to lose the last two frames to Nick Lewis 2/3 and Joe Bowman-Long. That must have been a blow to morale which leaves the Sportsman side facing the dreaded drop barring major results and frame difference going their way.

Buck defeat Bulls and on brink of Div. Three title

Last weeks potential title decider was won by the Buck Yourself after they beat the BullnHeifer 9-5. A run of seven frames on the bounce after the Bulls lead 2-1, culminated in Wayne Meredith beating Phil Lewis for the valuable two points. They now head the table by three points with the Bulls only having two matches left. Clive Whitehead with a 2/2 lead the line for the Buck. The Bulls are now looking over their shoulder to see if they can hang on to the second spot as the chasers can catch them this weekend. The Buck will win the league this week if they out perform the Judges or Back Lane Bowlers.

The Back Lane Bowlers inflicted a hefty 11-3 defeat on the Treacles with 3/3 for Karl Wigley and Shaun Gillet. Only Steve Tudor 2/3 had any response for the Treacles. The Bowlers will need the same performance this week if they are to move up to second when they play the Jury.

The Judges can also move up the league if they can repeat their performance against the Brexit Bowlers with an 11-3 win. Richard Clifton 3/3 with the match winning frame in the tenth. That now makes the runners up spot in the league a three horse race but possibly four with the Red Lion who had their bye last week as the outsiders.

The Woodenspooners remain rooted to the foot of the league after a heavy 13-1 defeat to the Jury. Adam Bowen 3/3 with the match frame for the Jury who are now resigned to another season in the Third Division. The Exchange and Outbowlers who both sit just below mid table played out a 7-7 draw thanks to Jimi Jalmon 2/3 and finally Andy Jarman 2/3 winning the last two frames for the Exchange from 7-5 down. Callum Hamilton and Tristan Jones both 3/3 for the Out's.
