Jockey A seal Runners up spot as Cubs are relegated in Premiership

The Lion Cubs Premiership status came to an end last week with a draw against the Teasers. The Cubs did start off with a roar as they moved in to a 7-4 lead with a 3/3 for Nigel Owen but that roar ended in a whimper as the Teasers won the last three frames on the bounce. Russ Evans, Phil Jones and Ed Lewis all 2/3 for the home side. Such is the quality of the Cubs side, they will be looking to make a fast return.

With the title taken from them, the Jockey A were keen to finish as runners up and they did just that with a 9-5 win over the Dragons. Some excellent finishes in the first six frames put the Jockey 6-0 up and seemingly no way back for the Dragons. The Monty side showed a bit more of what they are capable of as they then took five of the next six frames. That shocked the Jockeys with the big guns Matt Davies and Aled Lloyd putting an end to that comeback in the last two frames with Aled 3/3 showing his class with three superb clearances.

The Caerhowel Tigers are enjoying an excellent season and last week backed that up with an 9-5 win over The Sws who went in to an early 4-1 lead. That only spurred the Tigers in to action and went on to win eight of the last nine frames. Dave Woosnam 2/3 the one to break The Sws's hearts as they continue to be in a relegation battle. Kev Morris with a 3/3 for the Tigers.

That third place will be fought against the Misfits who rattled an 11-3 win over the Jesters. From 2-2 the Misfits went on an eight frame run with Mark Cree's sealing the win in the tenth. Connor Jones and Aled Evans both 3/3 for the Monty side.

As we are closing in on the end of the season, as a league, we'd like to pay thanks to all of our venues for their continued support and hospitality. Also thank you to Mid Wales Stoves for their kind sponsorship, and to the eight business supporters.

Newbees claim Div Two title as Cefn Coch stumble

The Jockey Newbees have won the Division two title with many of their players playing in their first season in our league. A defeat to the Lions wasn't the way they would have liked to have won but with Cefn Coch only managing a draw against the bottom side Severn St Mob, that meant they can't be caught with only two matches remaining. It was an excellent win for the Lions with a 3/3 for Roger Lovatt leading the way. That will leave the Lions confused as to how they have slipped so far down the league due to an inconsistent season. Congratulations to the Newbees who will be a welcome addition to the Premier League next year.

The Severn St Mob exceeded their expectations by drawing to the Cefn Coch with Tudor Lloyd Kerry, Dan Rowlands and Chris Chaney all 2/3 pushing the likely runners up all of the way. Unfortunately that draw means the Sportsman side have been relegated as Cefn Coch need a maximum of two points from their last two matches to finish runners up.

After a good start to the season, the Outcasts are in danger of relegation after an 8-6 defeat to the Queues. At 6-6, Nick Lewis and Joe Bowman Long won the last two frames as they look to finish in the top half of the league.

The Melts are also in the relegation fight after an 8-6 defeat to the Bowling Ballers. Rhys Bell and Richard Morgan both 2/3 getting the Ballers over the line from 6-6 and they still have an outside chance of second spot should Cefn Coch collapse.

After struggling for most of the season, the Zimmers are up to sixth after a 9-5 win against the Younguns. Councillor Kev Mitchell with a 3/3 and the match frame and he can now concentrate on his constituency.

Buck Yourself win Div. Three title

Long term leaders of Division Three, Buck Yourself, last week claimed the title with two matches to spare after they beat the Treacles 10-4. After Steve Tudor 2/3 won the first frame, the buck then went on a seven frame winning streak with Gareth Owen 3/3 taking the title winning frame in the eleventh against Steve Best. Congratulations to them and they will be a welcome addition to Div. Two next season.

There's a huge battle for runners up spot with four teams still in the running. The Back Lane Bowlers are in the prime seat after they beat the Jury 10-4 and have built up a huge frame aggregate. Karl Wigley with a 3/3 and the match frame against Rich Watson as the Bowlers took the last seven frames of the match.

The BullnHeifer had their bye last week and have been in the running all season. They are back in action against the Exchange this week.

The Courthouse Judges let a point slip with a draw against the Wooden-spooners last week. That could have been worse if not for a Richard Clifton last frame win over Ricky Penny. James Bevan 3/3 for the Spooners who remain bottom of the league.

The Red Lion who have been in contention for promotion all season have slipped of late and another point was lost last week as they were held to a draw against the Exchange. Thomas Bromley with a 3/3 for the town side but Tom Ford and Daryl Haynes won the last two frames for the Lions. They sit three points behind with two frames to play.

A superb 8-6 win for the Brexit Bowlers against the Outbowlers and only their second of the season with Anthony Price 2/3 being the sides hero. Well done to them who have battled all the way in a hard season which has had a lot of narrow defeats.
