NO FUN FOR JESTERS AT THE JOCKEY DERBY IN PREMIER LEAGUE

The Jockey A are back up to second in the league after they trounced the table sharing Jockey Jesters 12-2 last week. Jake Owen started the Jesters off by winning the first frame but then the current champions showed no mercy by taking the next eleven frames. It was a relentless showing by the champions who are hoping to bounce back after that damaging defeat to the Full Montys and made even more commendable by the fact that Aled and Tomos Lloyd, and Carl Clark didn't play. The Jesters now play the Lion Cubs and will hope to put on a better show whilst the Jockey A have the match of the weekend to look forward to against the Misfits.

The Misfits sat out last week with their bye and treated Neil Powell to his usual spicy Korma for his birthday in a team bonding session.

After their credible draw against the Jockey A, the Nomads will have been disappointed to be on the end of a 9-5 defeat to the Sws last week. The Sws recorded 3-2 wins in the first two sessions and followed that up with a 3-1 last session with Adam Jones welcomed back to the side with a 3/3 and a 7 baller. That's an excellent win for the Sws given the good start that the Nomads have had, with Andrew Coppin 2/3 being their top performer on the night. Mark Jones and Josh Allen both with 2/3s for the villagers who play away to the Dragons this week.

The Dragons finally found a bit of a flame in the stomach in what was their first home match of the season. The Teasers are a regular mid table side so to come away with an 8-6 win was welcome, with Johnny Jerman 3/3 being the match winner against Russ Evans in the last frame. Earlier Graham Ottaway and Rich Evans both chipped in with 2/3s with Danny Francis and Ed Lewis recording the same for the Teasers who play the Full Montys this week.

The Full Montys versus the Tigers match was postponed.

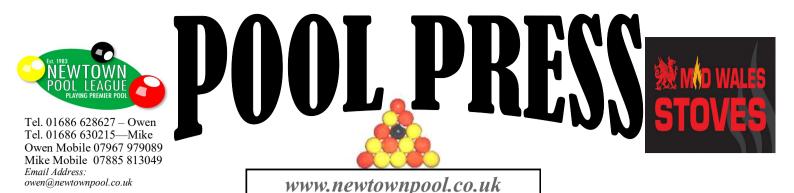

Matt Davies leads the divisional stats with a 10/10. Mike Williams and Drew Hughes are next with 9/10 followed by Carl Guntrip and Alan Walker on 8 frames.

OUTCASTS MOBBED IN DIV. TWO

Having won their first four matches, the Outcasts have now lost two on the bounce. Last week the Severn St Mob came back from 4-2 down to stun the home side, winning six of the last eight frames. Ted Pryce 3/3 was the main difference between the teams with Steve Jones 2/3 beating an under par Paul Jones in the thirteenth for the match and an excellent two points.

The Jockey Newbees climb to second in the league after they beat the Monty Melts 9-5. Charlie Martin 2/3 for the Melts held his own but one of the divisions favourites for promotion fought back with Robbie Hartshorn 3/3 and a 7 baller in the match clinching frame sealing their fourth win in a row. They remain one point behind table topping Bowling Ballers who held off the Younguns to win 9-5. Gareth McMurdo with a 2/3 and fresh from his stage performances kept his nerve to beat Rhys Jones for the match. Only Owain Jones for the home side with a 2/3 faired well on the night. The Ballers remain unbeaten so far and play the Mob this week and will be wary of them.

Laura Jones of the Desert Rats beat Gavin Williams of the Lion Caerhowel in the last frame of the match for an extremely hard fought two points after the Lions lead 5-3. Callum Lovell turned that around in favour of the Rats as they won four on the bounce. The reliable Neil Gorman 2/3 brought it back to 7-6 before the Lions ran out of roar.

The Zimmers had Owen Durbridge, Terry marshall and Matt Rawsthorne all 2/3 to thank for as they took a welcome point off a stuttering Cefn Coch B. After a fairly even contest, the "oldies" took a 7-6 lead only for the experienced Clive Langford 2/3 to hold his nerve so that the villagers went back up the hill with a point for their efforts.

This week with the Outcasts having their bye, the Melts and Rats know that wins will see them climb above them in the table as we near a third of the way through the season. The Queues look to have a mammoth task against the Newbees whilst the Ballers face a tricky tie away to the Mob.

In the divisional stats, Richard Morgan leads with 9 frames. Aaron Thorpe, Alex Galvin, Rhys Jones, Owain Jones, Charlie martin and Robbie Hartshorn all follow with 8 wins.

Please arrange your Three's and Masters cup matches without delay.

BullnHeifer and Red Lion close gap at top of Div. Three

With the Buck Yourself having their bye week, that gave the chance for the chasing teams to catch up. The Red Lion did just that and in superb style by beating the Woodenspooners 13-1. It was relentless as the lions took the first nine frames with Graham Lewis 3/3 sealing an early nights work. That lifts them to within one point of the Buck.

The BullnHeifer also gained ground with a hard fought 9-5 win over the Outbowlers.

Richard Bennett with a 2/2 and a match winning performance against Oliver Hall in the eleventh frame after Troy Palmer 3/3 tried his best to keep the Bowling club side in it.

In the mid table battle between the Back Lane Bowlers and the Exchange, the Bowlers came alive with the scores at 4-4. Winning five of the last six frames to take victory, Russ Powell 3/3, Sam Woosnam 2/3 and Shaun Gillett also 3/3, eased the Bowlers to the two points.

The Brexit Bowlers fell to an 11-3 defeat to the Courthouse Jury which leaves them rooted to the bottom of the league. The Jury were fast out of the blocks, winning the first seven frames, with Kevin Hodges winning two of those before completing his 3/3. Richard Watson completed the early two points in the ninth frame when he beat Joanna Davies.

The Judges moved level on points with the Treacles after their 8-6 win. Oli Goodwin 3/3 was back to winning ways and lead his team admirably which included the winning match frame against Andrew Powell. Brett Clark 2/2 was also the top performer for the Judges. Both sides are in danger of being cut adrift in the league unless they record a few back to back wins soon.

Kev Lewis from the BullnHeifer leads with 10 frames in the divisional stats. He is followed by Richard Watson, Phil Lewis and Huw Humphreys on 9 frames. Five players are on 8 wins.
