The Sws and Dragons maintain Premiership status

The Sws barring two highly unusual results of 14-0 against them and for the Jesters against the Dragons, have kept their Premiership status after they beat the Lion Cubs 10-4. Mark Jones, Carl Pryce and Josh Allen all with a 3/3 were the Sws top guns and they can now relax on the last week of the season. It's been a torrid season for the Cubs and they will try to regroup and mount a title challenge next season to bounce straight back.

After the Full Montys and Jockey A, since the turn of the year, the Monty Dragons are the form side and they had to battle hard for a point against the Nomads. 3/3 for Rhys Butler and a 2/3 for Ian Coppin was the best the Nomads could muster but an Alan Jones 2/3 including a 7 baller, 2/3 for the Dragons player of the year Johnny Jerman and finally 3/3 for Rich Evans made sure of the point that guarantees that they will be playing in the Premier League next season.

Six 7 ballers in the Misfits match versus the Full Montys made for an early night. Aled Evans smashed in three of those, with two against Drew Hughes meaning Drew now ties the Player of the Year award with team mate Mike Williams. It was Mike who sealed the match frame in the eleventh with the final score ending 8-6 to the Full Montys.

The Jockey A won the first two sessions 4-1 and 3-2 against the Tigers with Matt Davies winning the eleventh frame to make sure of the win before the Tigers made the score more respectable by winning the last three frames to end 8-6. Chris White returned to the side after a couple of months away and chipped in with a 2/3 for the Tigers who remain third in the league but the Misfits have one match in hand. Both have the Nomads to play with the Misfits also having to play the Teasers.

Cefn Coch seal runners up place in Div. Two

A hard fought 8-6 win for Cefn Coch over the Outcasts meant they can't be caught for second place. Paul Jones and Aaron Thorpe both 2/3 had brought the match back to 6-6 but Clive Langford 3/3 and finally Rob Davies saw off Phil Fage in the last frame for the two points. That leaves the Outcasts perilously close to being relegated after a superb start to their season seems to have turned sour.

A 9-5 win for the Bowling Ballers over the Rats means they can't be caught for third place. Barry Shafe lead the line with a 3/3 and set up teammate Gareth McMurdo to hold his nerve in the twelfth against Cal-lum Lovell.

Rock bottom Severn St Mob had a superb 8-6 win over the Lions after Tudor Lloyd Kerry 2/3 beat Charlie Weaver in the last frame. Chris Chaney and Clive Jarman both 2/3 also played their part but alas too lit-tle too late and they will be playing in Division Three next season.

Nick Lewis with a 7 baller was the toast for the Queues in the Monty derby against the Melts as they went on to win 8-6. In a hard fought match and locked at 5-5, the Queues then won the next three frames with David Ashton 3/3 and Owain Wilding 2/3 doing most of the work.

The champions Jockey Newbees were a bit too strong for the youngsters who make up the Younguns as they ran out 10-4 winners. Steve Sher-lock and Matt Hartshorn both 3/3 were the Newbees strongest perform-ers with captain Barry Bennett getting the winning frame in the tenth.

Rhys Jones made sure of being awarded the Player of the Year with his win over Robbie Harsthorn in the first session. An excellent achieve-ment from one of Newtown's rising youngsters. Well done Rhys.

Three-way battle for Runners up place in Div. Three

With the Buck already having the title in the bag, the heat is on for the runners up place. All three sides in contention won last week. The Back Lane Bowlers are in pole position after a thumping 12-2 in over the Woodenspooners. That contest was over in the tenth frame when Jacob Jones beat Jean Marie Penny. This week they take on the champions knowing a win will be enough to finish runners up or at minimum match what the BullnHeifer do against the Brexit Bowlers.

Last week the Bulls beat the Exchange 8-6 thanks to Phil Lewis 2/3 holding his nerve late on in the thirteenth frame. No doubt they will keep one eye on the app for the top of the table clash this week.

If both the back Lane Bowlers and Bulls lose, then the Courthouse Judges would finish second if they beat the Red Lion. Last week the Judges struggled to an 8-6 win over lowly Outbowlers and had to win the last two frames with the score at 6-6. Oli Goodwin 2/3 getting the last frame win over Rob Bridgen to cling on to an outside chance of promotion. Callum Hamilton 2/3 for the Outbowlers as he continues his good win percentage since the turn of the year. This was a good win for the Judges having had to come back from 4-1 down.

The Red Lion are now winless in four matches after they lost to the Brexit Bowlers 8-6. Stephan Ross and Anthony Price both 3/3 did most of the damage for the Brexits leaving it to Michael Ross to finish the match off by beating Daryl Haynes in the penultimate frame. It's been a disappointing second half of the season for the Lions who have been in the top three for most of the season until mid January.

At 3-1 down to the Jury, the champions Buck Yourself showed the steel they needed to hit back with eight frames on the bounce. Gareth Owen with a 3/3 and sealing the win. Maisie Church 2/2 also for the Buck.
