Bullnheifer, Courthouse Judges & Severn St Mob are League Cup Giant Killers

Last week the League Cup draw set up three David versus Goliath matches. Third division team The Bullnheifer took on top Premiership outfit the Monty Misfits and made full use of home advantage by smashing them 5-1. Playing away at Cefn Coch who are one of Div. Two promotion favourites, Third Div. Courthouse Judges returned with a 5-4 win whilst Second Div. Monty Younguns took out Premiership side Jockey Jesters. Well done to all three sides who belied their league positions. The bottom side in Div. Two Monty Queues dumped out mid table Zimmers in the First Round. With all of the remaining ties going the way of the form sides, the Second round has pitted The Outcasts against the Lion Cubs, the Jockey A versus the Nomads and the Severn St Mob against the Teasers are three of the next round ties where the form book could go out of the window.

As Winter and Christmas 2025 approaches and the early dark nights set in, don't be afraid to check in with a loved one, friend or work colleague. Three simple words could be huge for someone, and a massive life changer. An individual who you think will be ok and has experienced life highs and has everything life has to offer can also struggle with their mental health. Robin Williams, Gary Speed, and sadly recently Ricky Hatton never spoke up about how they were feeling. Perhaps if they did, their life and the people around them would have a loving father figure in their lives. Did you know 40% of the male UK population don't talk about their struggles. That's 13.7 million people. Together with your help we can change that. 'It's good to talk'.
