Full Montys extend lead as Misfits climb to third in Premier League

With the Jockey A having their bye week, the Full Montys took full advantage by extending their lead at the top to five points albeit with the reigning champions having two matches in hand. Their opponents Lion Cubs have had a disastrous start to the campaign and surprisingly find themselves rooted to the foot of the table. A flicker of the standard the Cubs are capable of got them to 5-4 down however the Montys are a relentless and formidable team to play against and quickly extinguished that flicker off, winning all of the remaining five frames for a 10-4 win.

The Monty Misfits 9-5 win against the table sharing Nomads was sealed in the second session by winning all five frames. Connor Jones 2/3 including a 7 baller and the match frame showed signs that his confidence is returning and a 2/2 for captain Aled Evans who knows he has a side who are more than capable of breaking the Full Montys and Jockey A strangle hold on the top two league positions. The Nomads drop a position and they are now without a win in four matches.

A late night at the Lion Caerhowel as the visiting Dragons endured slow play from the Tigers who returned from their North Wales Inter League match well lubricated. The Dragons made their best start of the season racing in to a 6-2 lead which they must have felt was enough to get them over the line as they still look to climb the table from a poor start. Back came the Tigers winning five frames on the bounce albeit from either good fortune or wasted chances on the Dragons behalf. Up stepped Beefy Jones to gain his team a point by beating an under par Shaun James.

Josh Allen with a 3/3 for The Sws gained his team a hard fought point against the Teasers. That came against Danny Francis 1/3 who had an unusual off night. Ed Lewis who rarely has an off night chipped in with a 2/3 as the Teasers fought back from 6-3 down to lead 7-6 before Josh restored parity.

European Championship News

Representing Wales at the European Championships in Ireland this week, we have three representatives from our league. Laura Jones is in the Ladies A side who finished 4th in the league. Laura also made it to the last 16 of the ladies Singles KO. Jason Stokes is playing for the Masters B side who are also 4th in their league. Llion Jones in the Under 23A side finished 5th.

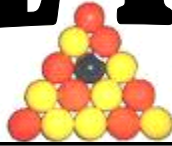

Well done achieving International honours.

Ballers cast aside the Outcasts as Zimmers tame the Rats in Div. Two

In the top of the table clash between the Bowling Ballers and the Outcasts, the Ballers raced in to a 3-0 lead before Paul Jones stopped the rot. Phil Fage pegged another one back for the Outcasts which only set the Ballers on another three frame streak to lead 6-2. Luke Williams and Rhys Bell both with 3/3 then finished the match off in style to win 11-3 and increase their lead at the top of the table.

The Zimmers who should be higher up the league given their accumulative experience had a derby match to contend with against the Desert Rats last week. After leading 4-1 at the break, the Zimmers then let the Rats back in to the match to only lead 6-4 after ten. Huw Roberts has been a good acquisition this season for them and he chipped in with a 2/3 to move the scores on to 7-5 only for Jamie Jones 2/3 and Josh Righelato to bring back parity.

In the top half of the table clash between two of the promotion favourites, Cefn Coch B took on the Jockey Newbees. As expected, the frames edged back and fore until a 3/3 for Clive Langford moved the score on to 7-4 for the Coch. Rob Francis 2/3 held his nerve to finish the match off with the next frame against Rich Pittman before the Newbees made the scoreline more respectable by winning the last two frames.

The mid table Monty Younguns took on bottom side Lion Caerhowel with the score never in doubt as the “kids” raced in to a 6-1 lead. Rosie Morgan-Penny with a 3/3 and a 7 baller after Rhys Jones 2/3 had sealed the points in the tenth frame against Jack Shepherd.

The Monty Queues and Severn St Mob match was postponed.

In the divisional standings, Rhys Jones and Richard Morgan lead the way with 12 frames. Matt Rawsthorne and Owain Jones are next with 11 whilst Rhys Bell and Jamie Jones are on 10 frames.

Bucks trampled on by rampaging Bulls in Div. Three

In the top of the table clash between the BullnHeifer and Buck Yourself, the Buck simply didn't have any answer to the relentless Bulls who raced in to a 7-0 lead. Kev Lewis and Rich Bennett both 2/2 in that seven frame onslaught before Ricky Farrington won the first frame for the Buck. Chris Thomas then won his second frame of the night to seal an early nights work and leave the Buck shell-shocked. The Bulls must have started the party then as the Buck won the last five frames to make the scoreline a more respectable 8-6.

The Exchange took advantage of that defeat by joining the Buck on ten points by beating the Outbowlers 9-5. In a match that mirrored the top of the table clash, the Exchange ran in to a 7-0 lead themselves before Jordan Lewis stopped the rot. Andy Jarman completed his 2/2 and in doing so, made sure of the win against oliver Hall in the ninth frame.

Lying in mid table, the Treacles and Back Lane Bowlers played out a 7-7 draw which does neither any good in trying to catch the leading group. The Bowlers raced in to a 4-0 lead and will feel like they lost a point rather than gained one but back came the Treacles with a 3/3 for Mark Powell. Jacob Jones completed his 3/3 to put the Bowlers 7-6 up before the reliable Steve Tudor 2/3 closed the match out for an honours even.

The Woodenspooners who lie lower in the league than previous years took the match to the Jury after the Jury lead 5-1. Back came the Spoons to win five of the next six frames with Jamie Woodhouse and Aron James both 2/3 being the main men. Tom Owen won his second for the Jury to put them on the hill at 7-6 but James Bevan completed his 2/3 and in doing so, closed the match out at 7-7.

The Brexit Bowlers were on the wrong end of an 8-6 defeat after travelling up to the Courthouse Judges. The return to form of Brett Clark 3/3 was the main difference between both teams with Sam Young 2/3 just about getting her side over the line in the last frame when she beat Kyle Challinor. Stephen Ross and Anthony Price both 2/3 for the Brexits who have showed signs of improving as the season progresses.

In the divisional standings Phil Lewis and Kev Lewis both of the Bullnheifer lead with 12 frames along with Huw Humphreys. Four players follow with 11 wins.
