CEFN COCH STUN JESTERS AWAY FROM HOME

After narrowly missing out on a draw the first week of the season, Cefn Coch didn`t let that disappointment affect them as they cantered to a 9-5 win away at the Jockey Jesters. With the scores at 3-3, the travelling side won the next six frames on the bounce with Rob Francis 3/3 in fine form, taking the winning frame in the eleventh. The Jesters won the final two frames to make the scoreline a little more respectable.

The Caerhowel Tigers may be a surprise force to contend with this season after strengthening and last week, they made it two wins from two as they beat the teasers 8-6. Jason Stokes and Dave Woosnam both 3/3 have started the season off well for the Tigers who can now look forward to a big match versus the Misfits.

The Sws fixtures haven`t been kind to them after they lost to the Jockey A the first week and then had the Full Montys the second week. The champions are in scintillating form at the moment and made light work of the Sws, eventually winning 11-3 with the match finishing 8.30pm. Five 7 ballers in a row with four of them going to the Monty club side sped the match up, with Mike Williams wrapping the match up in the tenth against Mark Jones. The season certainly does look ominous especially when you consider they travelled without Drew Hughes.

The Jockey A are just about keeping pace after they beat the Cubs 10-4 with Carl Clark 2/2 making his first appearance and setting up Mark Davies to see the match out by beating mark Woosnam.

The Jockey Bees will be cursing themselves for letting a 6-5 lead go against the Misfits who won the last three frames to take both points. Neil Powell and Conor Jones set up Mark Crees to see off Rich Pitman in the last frame for an 8-6 win.

This week the Full Montys will want to make full use of the Jockey A bye as they paly the Cubs whilst the Misfits and Tiger lock horns in the weeks big tie.

CLOSING DATE FOR ENTRY OF BOTH CUPS IS TONIGHT SUNDAY 27TH SEPT

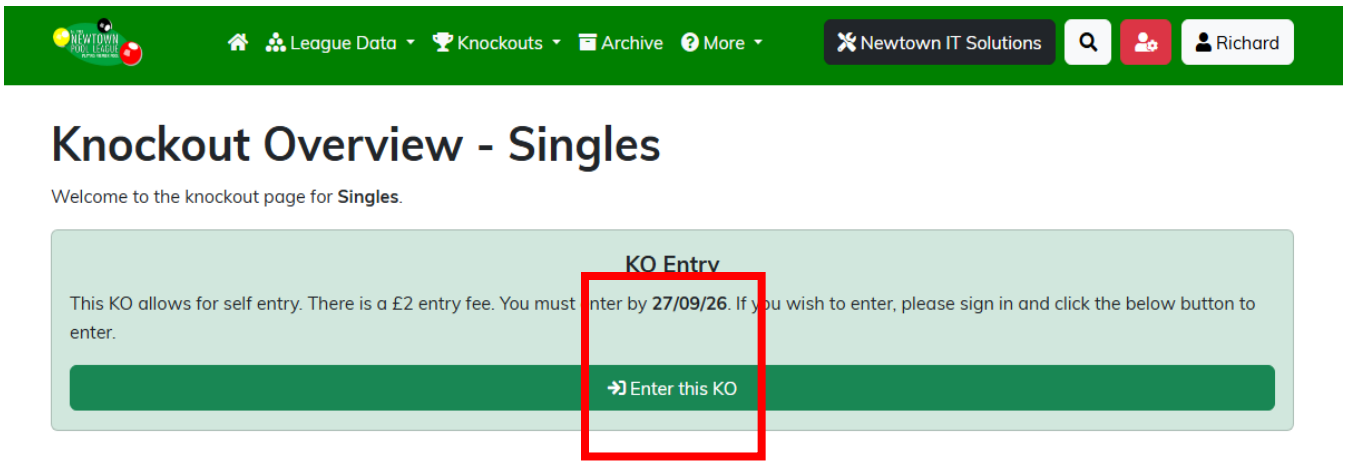

No fixtures for Division Two last week but resume this week with five fixtures which are very hard to call a winner out. The tie of the round being the Younguns taking on the Back Lane Bowlers.
After the BullnHeifer, Monty Queues, Buck Yourself and Caerhowel Lions all narrowly missed out securing their first point in the first round of fixtures, they`ll be keen to put that right this week. There are three more weekends when Division Two don`t have any fixtures this season so teams are asked to keep an eye on these so they can play cup matches or rearranged league matches if possible.

LOUNGE RATS LEAD DIV THREE AFTER OUTBOWLERS INNIHILATION

Four side have maximum points so far but it is the Lounge Rats who head the early table after beating the Outbowlers 11-3 away from home. Not many sides win all three sessions but that is exactly what the rats did, 4-1, 4-1 and 3-1 in a dominant display in which league stalwart Allen Birch 3/3 including a 7 baller finished the tie of in the tenth.

Daryl Haynes of the Red Lion lead the line for them as they beat the Treacles 10-4. It was the Lions Tom Ford 2/3 who beat Tristan Jones to make sure of the two points as they try to keep pace at the top.

Coming back from 6-5 down, the Severn St Mob won the last three frames against the Jury to maintain their 100% record with Steve Jones holding his nerve to win the deciding frame.

Their have a rejuvenated Julie Breakwell who has returned and chipped in with a 3/3. Gavin Corfield won his 2/2 for the Jury but to no avail.

A Johnny Jones inspired 3/3 lead his Judges team to a 9-5 victory over the Severn Bowlers who only had a 2/3 from Jimi Jarman to thank for. This week the Judges take on their table sharing Jury side which will no doubt want to be the first side to take points off them this season.

The DWLLWGAF`S will be kicking themselves after they battled to a 6-6 scoreline only to lose the last two frames against the Brexit Bowlers. After losing his first tow frames, Ian Staton held his nerve in the last frame of the night to beat Nathan Hamer 2/3 for a hard fought two points.

Michael Ross with a 3/3 for the Brexiters.
