Dragons dent Jockey A 100% record

After beating the Teasers 9-5 in a rearranged match last Friday, the Dragons arrived at the Jockey in good spirits. Four 7 ballers in a fast paced good quality match brought the scores to 5-5. Luke Mumford 2/3 making his first appearance of the season put the Dragons 7-6 up only for Callum Bishop 3/3 to take out a superb clearance off the break.

The Full Montys will have enjoyed that dropped point as they beat Cefn Coch 10-4. That seemed an unlikely scoreline after they lead just 5-4 but they moved up a gear in the closing stages as Carl Guntrip beat Rob Francis as late as the twelfth frame for both points. This week they take on the Jockey A in an eagerly anticipated top of the table clash.

Having drawn with the Jesters in a rearranged match last Friday, the Lion Cubs then took two points off The Sws by beating them 8-6. Llyr Thomas 2/3 is in the form of his life at the moment and he set up Barry Owen to break the villagers hearts by beating Carl Pryce which leaves the Sws hovering mid table.

Jake Owen with four 7 ballers in a row is in a rich vein of form but he couldn`t prevent the Jesters being defeated against the Misfits who needed a last frame win by Carl Toasty Williams. Mark Crees also with a 3/3 including two 7 ballers in this match.

A Steve Sherlock inspired 3/3 for the Bee`s lead them to a narrow 8-6 win over the Teasers who are yet to get off the mark this season. Paul Allen making his debut after many years away also chipped in with a 2/3 as he set up Richard Pitman to beat Nigel Roberts in the last frame.

Teams are reminded that matches start at 7pm. If you can`t make this time, the captain MUST contact the opponents. Frames can be claimed every 15 minutes.

Top Three Start to Break Away in Div. Two

The Nomads boast a 100% record so far this season as they saw off the Buck 9-5 thanks to Huw Roberts who had a night to remember. Not only did he record a 3/3 but he also had a 7 baller and the match frame. Alan Walker also with a 3/3 for the Nomads as they look odds on for promotion.
The Monty Younguns are on a resurgence and last week battered the BullnHeifer 11-3. So far, last seasons promoted teams seem to find Division Two a little tough as they stay rooted to the base of the table. Young Rhys Jones 3/3 getting the magical eighth frame for the Younguns.
Gary “the brush” Jones 2/2 has certainly strengthened the Deserts Rats as they stay in a lofty third place after beating the Montys Melts 8-6. Josh “the ice-cream” Righelato also with a 2/2 and the match frame as he beat Charlie Martin in the penultimate frame and they remain three points behind the leaders.
The Monty Queues laboured to an 8-6 win over the Lions of Caerhowel and needed a last frame win by Nick Lewis 3/3 who 7 balled Ash Isaac. Neil Gorman with a 3/3 for the Lions and you would think he needs to play more regularly if the Lions are to avoid a relegation. Aaron Thorpe 3/3 for the Queues has certainly strengthened them.
In the Bowling Club derby, the back Lane Bowlers ripped it up the Bowling Ballers who continue to struggle to get back in to the top flight. Jacob Jones 3/3 continues to perform to a consistent level and combined with Russ Powell also 3/3 who made it 6/7 for the season, the BLB`s have a good shout of challenging for promotion. As for the Bowling Ballers, they seem a long way off regaining their Premiership status on this performance.

LIONS AND MOB ROMP AHEAD IN DIV. THREE

The Red Lion took their foot off the gas last week as soon as they won the match in the tenth against the DWLLWGAF. Tom Ford with a 2/3 for the win but then the bottom side took four of the last five frames. Their first point will come soon if they can keep that form up.

Also breaking away at the top are the Severn St Mob who came from 6-5 down to beat the Severn Bowlers. Andrew Jarman with a 2/3 put his side on the brink of what would have been an excellent win but Julie Breakwell 2/3 and finally Ted Pryce 3/3 break their hearts.

The Outcasts lie three points behind but with a match in hand and last week trounced the Brexit Bowlers 12-2. Captain Phil Fage has started the season off in excellent form and it was his 3/3 that set up Paul Jones to beat Ian Staton as early as the ninth frame.

In another one sided match, the Treacles beat the Lounge Rats 11-3 with Steve Tudor 3/3 and Steve Best 2/2 being the main protagonists. That win moves the Treacles up to a lofty fifth place as they have now won their last three matches.

The Judges blew away their hosts in the form of the Outbowlers 10-4 with sam Young 2/2 beating Rob Bridgen in the eleventh frame for the two points. Amy Jones also with a 2/2 for the Judges with only Kye Brooks 2/3 having any answer for the Bowling club side.

With the Mob having their bye week, the Outcasts play the Judges in the tie of the week. Who will close the gap on the Sportsman side?
