Teasers beat The Sws as Full Montys Remain Unbeaten

For the second week in a row, The Sws drop points as the Teasers start to fulfil their potential. Rob Griffiths with a 3/3 had put The Sws 4-3 up but an excellent run of five frames, lead the Teasers to victory with an Ed Lewis 3/3 and a Russ Evans 2/3 finished the match off in style with a 7 baller against Adam Jones.

The Full Montys do look untouchable this season as they eased to a 10-4 victory over the Monty Dragons. Bob Pritchard with a 3/3 and 7 baller looks to be unplayable at the moment. Jake Ottaway 2/2 also capped an excellent nights work with two controlled frames.

The Misfits were made to work hard for their two points against Cefn Coch who lead 5-4. Rob Francis and Robbie James both 2/3 guided their team to what looked like a well earned point at least but back came the Misfits to win the remaining five frames to win 9-5 with Mark Crees 3/3 being the main instigator of the comeback.

The Jockey A are just about keeping pace with the leaders as they eased to a 10-4 win in the derby match against the Jockey Bees. Six frames on the bounce from the start made for an ominous night but in fairness, the Bees did regroup to share the remaining eight. Callum Bishop 2/3 winning the match as early as the ninth frame with Matt Davies 3/3 and two 7 ballers being the man of the match.

The Caerhowel Tigers are back up to fourth after they beat the Jesters 10-4. Dave Woosnam with a 3/3 and the match frame in the twelfth against Martin Williams. Jason Stokes also with a 3/3 and can look forward to the last match of the first half of the season at home to an out of sorts Sws.

7 Baller Award

Carl Guntrip leads with 8. Jake Owen is on 5 with Bob Pritchard and Mike Williams on 4.

Rats go Second after Younguns defeat

The Desert Rats moved up a position after their 10-4 win against the Back Lane Bowlers. After the Bowling club side went 3-1 up, that seemed to spur on the Rats with Gareth Bowen 3/3 taking the glory frame against Ethan Wigley in the twelfth. The Rats have had a good first half of the season and will need that consistency if they are to mount a promotion push.

The Nomads have made it 9/9 wins but need a last frame win by Alan Davies to break the hearts of the BullnHeifer in the narrowest of margins of 8-6. Another 2/2 for Kev Mitchell who has returned to strengthen the side. Matt Rawsthorne with a 3/3 and a 7 baller for the Nomads with sam Woosnam and Kev Lewis both 2/3 for the Bulls.

The title chasing Younguns fell to a damaging 8-6 derby defeat by the Melts. Mark Hamer with a 3/3 for the Melts put them on the hill at 7-6 and Stephen Penny 2/2 put the match to bed. That excellent win puts the Melts up to fourth at the halfway point.

The Caerhowel Lions took the honours with a 9-5 win over fellow struggler Buck Yourself. The match started off ok for the Buck as they romped to a 5-1 lead. That unfortunately for them was the end of it as back came the Lions with a Rich Wyatt 3/3 setting up Jack Shepherd 2/3 to close out a superb comeback. The Lions can now rest easy for Christmas knowing they are out of the relegation battle for now at least.

Richard Morgan 2/3 was the toast of the Bowling Ballers after he beat Owain Wilding of the Queues in the last frame to seal a good two points. With the scores level at 5-5 going in to the last session, it looked like nothing was going to split the two mid table sides but Luke Williams and then Gareth McMurdo were fast out of the blocks for the Ballers. Back came the Queues Neal Pratten but to no avail.

Red Lion Mobbed at Home

In what could potentially be a title decider, last week the Severn St Mob took the advantage by beating their rivals Red Lion 9-5 away from home. It was a blistering start for the Mob as they took seven of the first eight frames culminating in Julie Breakwell beating Aam Allen for an excellent win. That moves them two points ahead at the top.

The Jury had little trouble in dispatching the Outbowlers, eventually winning 11-3. Jake Roberts with a 2/2 and the match frame. That win takes the Jury up to a lofty third in the league and could jump one higher if they beat the Red Lion this week.

2/3s for Paul Jones, Callum Hamilton and Phil Fage drove the Outcasts to a 9-5 win over the Monty Treacles with Paul`s win over Michael Goodwin in the penultimate frame being the two point clincher. That win takes the Outcasts to joint third and ready to push on in the second half of the season. Troy Palmer and Lydon Birch with 2/3s for the Treacles who are now winless in three matches.

In the Bowling club derby between the Brexits and Sevens, it was honours even but the Sevens did need to win the last three frames for that. Jimi Jarman 2/3 and finally the old experienced head of Mark Powell with a 3/3 levelled the score. Only Michael Ross with a 2/3 for the Brexits had a performance of note as they lead 7-4.

The match between the Judges and Lounge Rats is to be arranged soon.

This week the DWLLWGAF are back in action after their bye week and will aim to win their first match of the season before Christmas.
